Why is Electric Light Best?
Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.
HEALTHY! It has no odor. Professor Thompson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four cubic feet of electricity.
CLEAN! It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.
SAFE! As electric bell work, no danger of suffocation.
CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illuminant.

JAPANESE HIGH OVER

Landing Marines at Amoy Against the Protests of the Consuls.

Report Denied That Russia, Germany and Japan Declared War.

New York, Aug. 27.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Amoy, China, says: The Japanese have been landing marines for three days, not only without provocation, but against the protests of the consuls. Accidental destruction of the Japanese temple by fire was the alleged excuse for this act, when the Amoy officials have proved their ability to preserve order. There are 600 marines landing today.

The excitement is intense and thousands of civilians are leaving the city. The merchants have visited the American consulate, pleading with the consul to interfere for the withdrawal of the marines, otherwise they declare it will be impossible to preserve order. The landing of the marines breaks the agreement of the powers with the viceroys.

London, Aug. 27.—There is absolutely no truth in the dispatch from Chefoo, Aug. 24, saying it was rumored there on good authority that Russia, Germany and Japan had declared war on China and had "invited Great Britain and the United States to retire from that country."

Inquiries made at St. Petersburg, Berlin and Tokyo show the report is rejected at those capitals as "unworthy of notice."

WAR NOT DECLARED.

No Nation Has Formally Declared War Against China.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Russia, Germany and Japan have not declared war upon China, either separately or in concert. This statement is made upon the authority of the highest character. A brief dispatch from Chefoo conveying a rumor current there that Russia, Germany and Japan had joined in a declaration of war upon China aroused some interested comment among Washington officials and among diplomatic representatives of the various governments. That fact alone is accepted in official circles as a sufficient refutation of the rumor.

ARE STILL WAITING.

The Allies at Peking Refraining from Aggressive Action.

London, Aug. 27.—The latest news from Peking indicates that the situation there is unchanged. The imperial city is still invested, but has not yet been occupied. The allies, when the last message left, were still refraining from aggressive action, pending instructions from their governments. An attack from 30,000 Boxers was anticipated, and to meet this the whole American force and the British artillery, according to a dispatch to the Morning Post from Peking, dated Aug. 18, were moved to the outer city wall. The Boxers were reported coming from the south.

Gen. Dowd, in his report of the engagement outside of Tien Tsin, says in a dispatch dated Aug. 15: "The lines of communication near Tien Tsin are now free from danger. The enemy had been treating the villagers badly. Several decapitated bodies were found near their camp. The villagers are now flocking to Tien Tsin at the rate of about 1,000 a day. As there is not more than a month's food supply there is every prospect of a famine shortly."

This declaration that a famine is imminent in consequence of the inadequacy of provisions adds a new element of peril to the situation. Shanghai advises say that the report of the murder of the Emperor Kwang Su by the Japanese is untrue. A telegram from Tien Tsin, Aug. 24, asserts that Russians, Germans and Japanese had pushed forward from Peking with the intention, it was assumed, of pursuing the fleeing emperor down.

At a conference of ministers and generals held at Taku Friday it was decided, according to the Telegraph, to refer the fate of the forbidden city to Europe.

Tien Tsin dispatches to Berlin, dated Aug. 23, say: "The Japanese troops are in possession of the wall around the innermost part of the forbidden city, but have not yet made their way to the imperial palace, owing to the lack of government instructions."

Lieut. Gen. Linovich, commander of the First Siberian army corps, calling to St. Petersburg, under date of Aug. 26, says: "There are no longer any Boxers in Peking. They were driven out today by the French and Russians, whose flags were hoisted over the imperial city. The emperor and the empress, the heir apparent and the whole court have fled to the province of Shen Si."

Li Hung Chang, according to a Shanghai dispatch dated yesterday, has once more postponed his departure for the north.

KNOTS IN THE CABLE

Breaks in Communication With China Keep Officials In the Dark.

THE TROOPS AT AMOY

Naval Commander Will Be Directed to Make Inquiry Into Facts.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Cable interruptions continue to keep the government here in the dark as to what is happening in China, and notwithstanding the most urgent appeals to the cable officials and to our own officers there no word has gotten through from China since Saturday. One of the cable companies this morning notified the state, war and navy departments that the Great Northern cable route, meaning the Siberian line, through which Peking is reached from the north, and Japan and Korea are in part served, is interrupted at a point between Blagoweshensk and Khabarovsk. The Eastern cable route is operating subject to great delay, though still open to Japanese points. The embassies and legations here, with the exception of the Japanese legation, are faring no better than the state department in the matter of the receipt of news. Minister Wu and Baron Speck von Sternberg, the latter now acting as chargé of the German embassy, this afternoon called at the state department in search of information. Mr. Wu stated that he had not had one word from Li Hung Chang or, in fact, from any member of the Chinese government for some days, and that he was entirely dependent upon the state department and the newspapers for information. He was perturbed by the reiteration in the press of the story that Russia, Germany and Japan had finally decided upon a formal declaration of war against China, and was much relieved to ascertain that the state department was absolutely without confirmation of this report.

The condition of affairs at Amoy is, for the moment, attracting the greatest share of attention at this department.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The war department officials believe that the line between Shanghai and Chefoo has been cut by Boxers as the last communication received from Tien Tsin was dated Aug. 23. Such interruption would delay all messages from Chefoo to Shanghai by steamer, a trip of about four days.

THE NAVAL VETERANS

This Was Their Day at the Chicago Grand Army Encampment.

HAVE A BIG PARADE

Mammoth Turn-Out, Following the Dedication of the Naval Arch.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—This was the day of the Grand Army encampment set aside for the men of the navy, and from morning until evening the ensigns of the men of the sea were given precedence over the battle flags of the men who fought on land. Two thousand strong, the men who fought with Farragut, Dupont and Porter, along the Atlantic coast, in the Gulf, and up and down the Mississippi river, marched through the streets, which were packed with a cheering, applauding multitude. Beside the men who fought at sea, from '61 to '65, came the younger generation, who helped to smash Montezuma's fleet in Manila bay, and made glorious history when Cervera sailed out of Santiago harbor to overwhelming defeat. With the veterans of the navy marched a band of men whose lot during the war comprised the worst of hardships—but none the less was as full of glory as the career of the bravest fighters of them all. These were the members of the Association of Prisoners of War, who received an enthusiastic greeting as they marched along.

The parade, which was a prelude to the great march of the Grand Army tomorrow, started at 11 o'clock from the corner of Michigan avenue and Randolph street, and after a short march through the downtown streets, turned into Michigan avenue at Jackson boulevard and passed on south under the beautiful archway at Van Buren street, through the Court of Honor, and out under the naval arch at Michigan avenue and Hubbard court, where it passed in review before Commander-in-Chief Shaw of the U. S. Navy, Acting Governor Warden, representing Governor Tanner, Mayor Harrison, Commander Jones of the Sons of Veterans, and other dignitaries of the city.

the Boers Repulsed at Winburg.

London, Aug. 27.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts: "The Boers have been beaten back by Bruce Hamilton at Winburg. Gen. Oliver has captured the Boer general, and the text of Lord Roberts' dispatch, from Pretoria, dated Aug. 26, shows that three of Oliver's sons also were in the attack, which the Boers made from three sides on Winburg. Lord Roberts adds that Gen. Oliver was 'slightly wounded' among the Boers in the southeast corner of the Orange colony during the war."

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Despite a rain which fell at times with the energy of a stream from a garden hose and degenerated periodically into a cold, soaking drizzle, the grand patriotic and sacred song service at the Coliseum last night was attended by a throng which taxed the capacity of the building to the utmost. A large detachment of police was on hand and their hands full in handling the crowd. The jam in the doorways at 8 o'clock was terrific and although none were injured, many gowns were badly wrecked. It is estimated that 15,000 people were packed into the hall and many were unable to gain admittance.

On the platform were Mayor Harrison, Commander-in-Chief Shaw of the U. S. Navy, and others. After a musical selection had been rendered by the band, the vast audience joined in the Lord's prayer, being led by Rev. Frank Gunsaulus, of Chicago. Bishop Spangenberg, of Chicago, welcomed the visiting veterans. A responsive reading was given by Rev. E. G. Hirsch, of Chicago, and Bishop Spangenberg then introduced Commander-in-Chief Shaw, who spoke upon "True Patriotism." Rev. E. G. Hirsch delivered a patriotic address, and Rev. P. D. Wallace pronounced the benediction.

Boers' Artillery Makes It Warm For Buller and Pole-Carew.

London, Aug. 27.—The following dispatch was sent today by Lord Roberts: "Belfast, Sunday, Aug. 26.—Engaged the enemy the greater part of the day over a perimeter of nearly thirty miles. Littleton's division and two brigades of cavalry, all under Buller, operated southwest of Dalmanutha. French, with two brigades of cavalry, moved northwest of Belfast, driving the enemy to Lekeniv, on the Belfast-Ladenburg road. As soon as French reached Lekeniv, Pole-Carew advanced from Belfast in support.

"The enemy, in considerable strength, opposed Buller's and Pole-Carew's advance. He brought three long tons and many other guns and pom-poms (autoloading guns) into action. The firing until dark was hot and persistent. Buller hopes his casualties will not exceed forty. Pole-Carew has not yet reported. The Boers are making a determined stand. They have a large number of guns. The country is difficult and well suited for their tactics, and is less favorable to cavalry than any we have hitherto worked over."

A HAZARDOUS TASK

His Dangerous Position Is Not New to the Venturesome Scientists.

From The Herald
Washington Bureau.

Washington, Aug. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Somewhere in the great province of Chi Li, still living, is an agent of the agricultural department, alone, cut off from communication with his government and surrounded by fanatic bandits who would consider his death a religious triumph.

G. D. Hill, of New York, an expert on fruits, and a graduate of Cornell university, started from Washington several months ago to penetrate the interior of Northern China and secure for the department statistics of the agricultural products which grow in some parts of Chi Li province. These trees are unknown to fruit growers throughout the world, but are said by travelers and explorers to be the most hardy and prolific growers of the peach family, and that the fruit is large and of delicious flavor.

The agricultural department was very anxious to secure some cuttings of this tree for experimental purposes, and Mr. Hill was selected for the task, which while it was known to be hazardous, was not supposed to be fraught with the dangers which threaten him now.

Mr. Hill was selected for the task, which while it was known to be hazardous, was not supposed to be fraught with the dangers which threaten him now. He has not been heard from since the Boxer disturbance broke out and grave fears for his safety are entertained by the department. The state and war departments have been requested to try to establish his whereabouts and, if possible, to get him out of the hands of the Boxers.

The dangerous position in which Mr. Hill finds himself is not new to the venturesome scientists of the agricultural department, who are constantly making themselves into odd corners of the world in search of seeds, fruits, vegetables, which will benefit the farmers and fruit growers of this country. They are explorers as well as scientists, and that do not travel around with a large escort, or an armed retinue of servants makes their calling the more dangerous. The department has constantly set in all parts of the world from eight to ten experts in different lines, and thus far not one of them has failed in his mission, and the results of all their trips have been highly satisfactory to the department.

W. E. Hanson, a fruit expert, is now in Central Asia, and will search the high plains east of the Caspian sea, for such fruit as the apple, pear, and seeds of different fruits and varieties of vegetables, which it is believed can be successfully and profitably transplanted in this country, and he is making an especial study of these foreign varieties of fruits and vegetables with reference to their use in Dakota, Minnesota and the Northwestern states generally.

Mr. A. Carleton, a wheat expert, has about completed his investigations in Russia in the great wheat growing regions of that empire, in which he has been very successful. He had obtained a large variety of choice seeds of this hardy winter wheat and other cereals indigenous to this region, and which are calculated to prove a great boon to the American wheat grower.

He will now visit Turkestan and the Si-berian railway, and is expected to return about the middle of September. He will bring back especially varieties of winter wheat for Kansas, Minnesota, and spring wheat for the Dakotas.

W. T. Auerie is on his third trip to the Mediterranean region of Europe in search of vegetables and fruits, and has discovered many things of value to the department. He has obtained a large number of seeds of the hardy peach, and has also secured a number of seeds of the hardy peach, and has also secured a number of seeds of the hardy peach, and has also secured a number of seeds of the hardy peach.

Professor S. A. Knapp is in Japan in search of the earliest samples of rice seedling, with a view to improving the rice crops in South Carolina, Texas, Louisiana and the Southwestern states generally. He reports to the department that he has secured a variety of rice that will better than the rice grown in the United States.

D. L. Fairchild is now on his way around the world. He was accompanied on his trip by Mr. Lathrop, of Chicago, and under the direction of these two experts the department purchased valuable seeds and plants in all of the countries visited on their tour. They first went to the West Indies, Venezuela, Colombia, Chile, Peru, Argentina, Republic and Brazil. Thence to Europe, visiting Hungary, Italy, Dutch East Indies, and from thence to Manila, where they have been making investigations which promise to be of great value to the department in dealing with our new possessions.

Mr. Fairchild will be home in about three weeks, and his reports of his trip will undoubtedly be very interesting. He is said to have found something new, interesting, and even startling to every practical agriculturist in the United States. His investigations along agricultural lines cover a multitude of countries.

Secretary Wilson is proud of his brave corps of special agents and of their many successes. He asserts that it will be a great relief to him to hear that Mr. Hill, who was sent to Northern China, is safe and well.

Many interesting stories have been written about the adventures of the world in search of seeds, fruits, vegetables, which will benefit the farmers and fruit growers of this country. They are explorers as well as scientists, and that do not travel around with a large escort, or an armed retinue of servants makes their calling the more dangerous. The department has constantly set in all parts of the world from eight to ten experts in different lines, and thus far not one of them has failed in his residents of all sections of the United States.

The work of excavation for the foundations of the new structure—the old building having been demolished—is still in progress, and today workmen, in the presence of the city engineers, and shovel, unearthed a lot of gold, silver and copper money of the United States and some of various foreign governments; also a silver watch, a number of medals and relics of perhaps former and long forgotten guests of the hotel.

Also a number of keys to the doors of guest rooms, when William's hotel was known as the "Mansion house," way back in the "fifties." The fact that anything of value was buried in the cellar of the historic old building was when John Washington, colored, encountered a hard substance at the time when he was at work digging in an old drain located near the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Fourteenth street. He found that what his pick had encountered was a key to room 102, according to the brass tag, which also bore, in addition to the figures, the words "Mansion House."

After energetic use of his pick, Washington turned over a number of old pieces, a number of foreign coins, a number of dimes, nickels and coppers. Fellow-workmen soon "caught on" to the fact that Washington had struck it rich, and the picks and shovels were soon working in lively fashion where Washington had been at work. In a short while a silver watch was unearthed, along with several $5 and $10 gold pieces, a number of foreign coins and twenty or more keys to the rooms of the old mansion house.

About this time a heavy rain storm occurred, and W. H. Clough, the superintendent of construction for George A. Fuller & Co., of Chicago, who have a contract for erecting the new Willard hotel, ordered the workmen to cease working on account of the heavy down-pour. The fact, however, that workmen had found money had spread among the hundred or more employes, and all kinds of stories from the discovery of a pot of gold to the unearthed jewels of great value, had spread, and the workmen, particularly negroes, were in a state of great excitement; in fact, the darkies were crazy, and in spite of the heavy down-pour, refused to quit work, but with pick and shovel kept hard at it digging for buried wealth.

Superintendent Clough, in speaking of the affair, said: "The discovery of money and coins had such an effect on the men, especially the colored contingent, who imagine of their perhaps vast wealth would be unearthed in the old historical cellar, that it was almost impossible for me to force them to continue their work at the places where they were detailed. All made a rush for the sewer, and although the rain was pouring down in torrents, they pushed around picking and shoveling for several hours. A number of them found other pieces of silver and several hundred coins, besides coins of foreign countries, and I had a hard time getting them to stop. The regular work, in fact, it was late in the afternoon, when the rain had stopped, and regular work was resumed, before I could bring order out of chaos. One might liken the excitement to the rush to the Klondike."

"During the progress of excavation, and also of tearing down William's hotel, we have discovered a good many papers and valuables and quite a lot of brass, coins and ornaments. Among them is one which I consider unique. It is a pocket watch, and bears the name of Col. Orrin B. Staples, until recently was a resident of the hotel, and was in this cash-book business on Oct. 22, 1887—seventeen years ago—very good. The receipts for this date amounted to more than $1800. For the next day or two the receipts averaged from twenty old dollars to less than hundred, but shortly thereafter another entry showed the day's receipts to be more than $200, and so they fluctuated on the whole, by careful examination of this old cash-book, I find that the average day's receipts of William's hotel showed that business "was doing."

Homily of the German Emperor For His Soldiers and Sailors.

ADJURES TO PRAYER
Heavenly Aid Should Be
Asked For Those Fighting In China.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Thousands of copies of the sermon recently preached by Emperor William on the yacht Hohenzollern have been published for distribution among the German soldiers and sailors in China. His majesty chose as his text, the eleventh verse of the seventeenth chapter of Exodus: "And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed, and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed."

After reviewing the text, the report of the sermon printed in the Kreuz-Zeitung, quotes the emperor as follows: "A hot and bloody struggle has begun. Many of our brothers stand already under the enemy's coats, and you have seen them, the thousands, who at the call 'Volunteers to the fore'—who will be the guardian of the empire, now as in the past, in the fight with flying colors. But you who remain behind at home, who are bound by other sacred duties, say, do you not hear God's call, which he makes to you, and which says to you, 'go up on the mountains, raise up thy hands to the heavens.' The prayer of the just can do much. It is in earnest."

Thus let it be, yonder, far away, the hosts of fighters; here at home, the

First Showing of Misses' and Children's Outer Garments for Fall.....

Always on the alert to be the first in the field, we are again pleased to announce that tomorrow we are ready to show the advance styles of Misses' and Children's Garments, consisting of Reefers, Jackets, Box Coats and Automobiles, in Blue, Tan, Red, Black and Castor. Positively the correct styles. They include all the newest shapes and a variety of original ideas. Our styles are distinctly out of the ordinary and the perfect finish of our garments have always been features of recognized superiority. The new Box Coat in shade of tan, made of fine heavy Kersey, lined with either fancy or plain Skinner's Satin, from 16 to 24 rows of stitching around the front, bottom, sleeve, rever and collar, is certainly a garment that will appeal to your fancy at once.

Next comes the Automobile, three-fourth length, in red, royal blue and tan, made of the very best Kersey, lined with the very best satin, stitched all around, large revers faced with silk to match the cloth, stitched in V shape, makes this garment nobby and most fashionable one out. Our prices on these first-class and stylish garments are most reasonable and must be seen to be properly appreciated.

Silk Petticoats.

First showing of the handsomest Silk Petticoats that were ever displayed in this city, or in any city in this state. This is a broad statement to make, but we know what we are saying and we shall leave this to the ladies to judge for themselves.

SERMON BY WILLIAM

Homily of the German Emperor For His Soldiers and Sailors.

ADJURES TO PRAYER
Heavenly Aid Should Be
Asked For Those Fighting In China.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Thousands of copies of the sermon recently preached by Emperor William on the yacht Hohenzollern have been published for distribution among the German soldiers and sailors in China. His majesty chose as his text, the eleventh verse of the seventeenth chapter of Exodus: "And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed, and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed."

After reviewing the text, the report of the sermon printed in the Kreuz-Zeitung, quotes the emperor as follows: "A hot and bloody struggle has begun. Many of our brothers stand already under the enemy's coats, and you have seen them, the thousands, who at the call 'Volunteers to the fore'—who will be the guardian of the empire, now as in the past, in the fight with flying colors. But you who remain behind at home, who are bound by other sacred duties, say, do you not hear God's call, which he makes to you, and which says to you, 'go up on the mountains, raise up thy hands to the heavens.' The prayer of the just can do much. It is in earnest."

hosts of praying men. May this be the holy battle-picture of our days. May this peaceful morning hour remind us—may it remind us of the sacred duty of intercession. Certainly, it is an enthusiastic moment when a ship with the young men aboard weighs anchor. Did you not see the warrior's eyes flash? Did you not hear their many-voiced hurrahs? But when the native shores vanish, when one enters the glowing heat of the Red Sea or the heavy waters of the ocean, how easily brightness and enthusiasm grow weary.

"Certainly it is a sublime moment, when, after a long voyage, in the distance, the straight lines of the German flag can be seen, and the black, white and red flag of the German colony become visible, and comrades in arms stand on one shore waiting to give a hearty reception. But the long marches in a burning sun, the long nights of bivouac in the rain. How easily gaiety and strength vanish. Certainly it is a longed for moment when, at last, the drums beat to the charge, the bugles are blown to advance, when a command is given 'Forward to the enemy!'"

"But then, when amid the roar of the guns and the flashing of the shells, comrades fall to the right and left, and hostile batteries still refuse to yield, how easily the bravest heart then begins to tremble."

"Christians, in order that our brothers over yonder may remain gay even in the greatest distress, faithful in the most painful duty, courageous in the greatest danger, they want something more than ammunition, sharp weapons; more than youthful courage and fiery enthusiasm. They want a blessing from above, vital power from above; otherwise they cannot win and remain victorious. The heavenly world only opens to prayer."

"We to us if we are idle whilst they are carrying on a hard and bloody battle, whilst they are standing with the sword in their hands, whilst they are wrestling in a death struggle. This would be Cain's spirit, with the cruel words, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' This would be unfaithfulness towards our brave brothers who are standing in the field. They are to be the strong arm which punishes assassins. They are to be the mailed fist which strikes in amongst them. They are to stand up for the sword in their hands, for the most sacred possessions. So we will accompany them with our prayers, our friends are invited to call at the city office, No. 405 West Superior street, of the 'North-Western Line' and obtain free a handsome program and souvenir of Chicago."

will pray to God that they may stand at their post like men, that they may fight their battles courageously and heroically, that they may bear their wounds bravely and calmly, that God may give those who die under fire a blessed end and the reward of faithfulness—in short, that He may make the warriors heroes and the heroes victors, and then bring them home to the land of their fathers with laurels around their brows and medals on their breasts."

In his concluding prayer the emperor said: "Lord our God, we trust in Thee. Lead Thou us in battle. We boast, Lord, that Thou wilt help us, and in Thy name we enroll the victors. We will not leave Thee, then wilt Thou bless us. Amen."

There's no beauty in all the land. That can with her face compare. Her lips are red, her eyes are bright. She takes Rocky Mountain Tea at night. Ask your druggist.

CENSUS OF DENVER.
Increase a Little Over Twenty-Five Per Cent.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The population of the city of Denver, according to the official count of the returns of the twelfth census, is 133,535, in 1900, against 105,713 in 1890. These figures show for the city as a whole, an increase in population of 25.46, or 25.46 per cent, from 1890 to 1900. The population in 1880, was 35,029, showing an increase of 7,040, or 25.31 per cent from 1880 to 1890.

Why is Electric Light Best?
Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.
HEALTHY! It has no odor. Professor Thompson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four adults.
CLEAN! It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.
SAFE! As electric bell work, no danger of suffocation.
CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illuminant.

THE MEETING

Armory Packed to Hear Duluth's Distinguished Citizen Open the Campaign.

Masterly Argument of the Philippine Question and Complete Dissection of Roosevelt.

Hon. Charles A. Towne addressed a monster gathering at the Armory last evening, opening the campaign of 1900 in the state of Minnesota. That Mr. Towne had a warmer place in the hearts of the people of Duluth than ever before was evidenced by the magnificent demonstration which was given him upon his appearance upon the platform, and as he was introduced and stepped forward to speak, he left here to attend the Kansas City convention. His voice was somewhat husky at the opening, but cleared as the evening wore on. Today Mr. Towne will leave for Idaho and will speak on the Pacific slope for a couple of weeks or more. Then he will move eastward and will be on the Atlantic slope before the campaign closes. The crowd began going to the Armory before 7 o'clock. The people anxious to hear him were determined to get good seats and long before the hour of 8 o'clock the vast auditorium was filled. From then on the crowd grew in size until finally the main floor and the galleries were packed. The number of ladies in the audience was very large, the fair sex displaying quite as much interest in the meeting as the men.

The auditorium was adorned with national colors, and the preliminary decorations for the flower show were in place, which gave the hall a handsome appearance. D. G. Cash, who was chairman of the meeting, spoke of the kindness of the ladies having the flower show in charge in permitting the meeting to have the benefit of the decorations and reciprocated by urging all to attend the flower show as a beautiful and worthy exhibition. A number of the ladies were decorated with pictures of Lincoln, Jefferson, Bryan, Stevenson and Towne.

The platform was arranged with a number of chairs, and upon these were seated a number of gentlemen and ladies. One very conspicuous and remarkable figure was that of Elijah Easton, of Owatonna, Minn., 86 years of age, with hair and beard snow white, at one time a member of the Minnesota legislature. Several men from outside the city were also on the stage. Henry Truesen took a seat there shortly after 8 o'clock. When Mr. Towne made his appearance on the stage, and that was the signal for a great ovation, in which the ladies joined quite as enthusiastically as the men. It was some time before the demonstration subsided down. Some moments later D. G. Cash, chairman of the meeting, arose and introduced Mr. Towne very briefly as a man who lives in Duluth but is a citizen of the whole United States of America. As Mr. Towne came forward the ovation extended him a few moments before he was renewed in larger measure, and the audience fairly rose to its feet to give expression to its enthusiastic feelings.

Mr. Towne's speech was a masterly one, a careful and convincing argument. When he came to the point of attending to Mr. Roosevelt's case there was some delicious sarcasm, and the picture he gave of the vice presidential candidate of the Republicans was a striking and a very amusing one.

MR. TOWNE'S ADDRESS.

A Convincing Argument Against the Imperialistic Policy.

Mr. Towne spoke as follows: Mr. Chairman, Fellow Citizens: I am grateful for this opportunity to open the present national campaign in Duluth. It is an interesting and important campaign. In this respect, no political contest of this generation can compare with it. Not lightly should a man assume the responsibility of public discussion when what he says may possibly influence some other man in his action on a question affecting not only the policy of the government but the very character of our institutions. I trust it is not vanity

A BATTLE EXPECTED

The Allies Expected to Attack the Chinese Force Outside of Peking.

SITUATION IS GRAVE

Shantung Troops a Serious Menace and Food Supply Is Uncertain.

New York, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The news of an attack on the Chinese force assembling at Nanyen, outside Peking, is anxiously awaited, according to a Japanese telegram from Taku. A combined detachment of Russian and Japanese cavalry was to have encountered the hostile body on last Saturday. The Japanese are more successful than the rest of the combined contingent in setting through runners, probably because of their superior knowledge of the Chinese language and character, but even Gen. Yamaguchi's message published at Tokyo yesterday was dispatched from Peking as long ago as Aug. 18. The Japanese general's telegram gives no hope of the capture of the imperial family, and indeed, it would seem that this cavalry force abandoned the chase on reaching the village of Mansan, where its commander learned that the empress and emperor, under Gen. Mac's escort, had started for the west. The approach of the Shantung troops, with fifteen regiments, to attack the line of communications, the rear of Peking, emphasizes the necessity of further reinforcements. These Shantung men are among the best of the drilled soldiers in the service, and have been carefully trained and organized under foreign forces. They are armed with German Mausers and Krupp long-range guns.

With Peking and its suburbs so closely and with these enemies to deal with outside, the foreign commanders have none too many troops at their disposal. Peking, moreover, is not a self-supporting town. It has always to be fed by convoys of rice from the south, and if these are stopped it is urgently necessary that no time should be lost in getting up supplies from the coast. The situation in the southern provinces is much complicated by the existence of an anti-foreign movement. The nineteen men executed by victory are alleged to have belonged to the reform party, which cherishes the intention of rising against the provincial authorities, and ultimately overthrowing the Manchu government and restoring Emperor Kwang Su to power. This movement is said to be widespread through the Yangtze region and to be encouraged by the British and Japanese. It is largely in the hands of the Chinese, in Singapore, America and Australia. It is believed to be within close association with the famous Kaitou and other secret societies. In fact, China is in a disturbed and restless condition, and further important developments are expected.

MESSAGE FROM CHAFFEE.

Reports Sixth Cavalry in Action Near Tien Tsin.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The first direct word from Gen. Chaffee since Aug. 18 yesterday in the form of a cablegram, dated today at Taku, reporting the action of the Sixth Cavalry with the enemy near Tien Tsin, on the 19th. The cable is believed to be genuine. "Taku, Aug. 17.—Adjutant General, Washington: Col. Wint, on the 19th, reports march of the enemy in an easterly direction, dispersed them, killing about 400. Ammunition and wounded. Will cable names wounded as soon as ascertained. Col. Wint is lieutenant colonel of the Sixth Cavalry, but is acting as colonel in the absence of Col. Sumner, who is in Europe. The fight probably occurred near Tien Tsin, as the Sixth Cavalry was at that place at the time mentioned."

THE ALLIES PUSH OUT.

They Act on the Aggressive West of Peking.

London, Aug. 28.—The allies, resuming aggressive operations, have taken the district west of Peking. This statement, based on Chinese authority, is called from Shanghai. From the same place comes the further statement that Li Hung Chang has wired the empress dowager at Hsi An Fu requesting the arrest of Prince Tuan and the disarmament of the Boxers in order to give him an opportunity for negotiations with the powers. The illuminations projected at Shanghai in celebration of the relief of Peking have been abandoned, lest they should cause a native outbreak. "Evidence was received here," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Standard, "going to show that Gen. Yung Lu was the real author of the anti-foreign outbreak, the empress dowager, Prince Tuan and the others all having been persuaded by him to take an extreme attitude while he stood aside and waited developments."

TO PROTECT FORMOSA.

One Reason Why Japs Landed Troops at Amoy.

Washington, Aug. 28.—In regard to the reported landing of Japanese troops at Amoy, the Japanese legation received today a confirmatory telegram from Tokyo, to the effect that in view of the fact that Amoy has, on account of its proximity to the island of Formosa, been the base for evil designs upon the island, Japan has considered it necessary to land a small force to protect the island of Japanese subjects at that port.

HOLD LOST HOSTAGE

The Allied Admirals Have Determined to Corral the Wily Chinese.

TO BE THEIR GUEST

On Board Ship Until Negotiations Are Opened With the Powers.

Paris, Aug. 28.—Admiral Courbajolle, the French commander in Chinese waters, has cabled to the navy department here that a council of the admirals had notified the foreign legations at Peking that it has been decided to hold Li Hung Chang on board ship until the opening of negotiations between the powers and China.

STANDING OF LI.

Powers Are Trying to Settle His Diplomatic Status.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The sufficiency of Li Hung Chang's credentials as a plenipotentiary to conclude a settlement with the powers on behalf of China is now a subject for active telegraphic negotiations among the powers. It was stated positively that, so far, the issue was open. Some powers have taken the ground that Li no longer represents anything tangible; that the fleeing emperor and empress dowager are powerless to carry out any pledge, but none of them, so far as can be learned upon inquiry, had finally decided this important question beyond recall.

HELD UP AND BUTCHERED.

The Fate of American Official Dispatches in China.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Adj. Gen. Corbin has received a dispatch from Gen. Chaffee saying that he (Gen. Chaffee) had received no dispatch from Gen. Corbin since Aug. 24. This was the date on which the allies attacked and entered Peking. Many dispatches have been sent by Gen. Corbin since that date, and the delay in their delivery is astonishing, even with the strange conditions which existed in China. Like the Cougher dispatch, the one from Gen. Chaffee is undated. The only explanation that can be made as to this lack of dates is that the dispatches have been butchered en route, probably on their way through China.

MUST OPEN THE LINE.

Chief Need at Peking Is Communication With Coast.

Paris, Aug. 28.—A dispatch received from the French minister at Peking, M. Pichon, dated Aug. 19, confirms the dispatch of Gen. Frey, commander of the French forces at the Chinese capital, and repeats other information already known. It adds that one of the principal anxieties is the re-establishment of communication by railroad and telegraph with Tien Tsin. Concluding, M. Pichon says: "The insecurity of the routes renders this difficult, but urgent. A resumption of the offensive by the Boxers and regulars is feared, and precautions must be taken. I am lodging at the Spanish legation. All my staff and domestics are in miserable health. The greater part of the town is a heap of ruins."

AFFAIRS AT AMOY.

Rioting Continues and Riching Chinamen and Europeans Fleeing.

Washington, Aug. 28.—A cablegram has been received at the state department from United States Consul Johnson, at Amoy, China, relative to the rioting in progress in that city. He reports that many of the richer Chinamen and Europeans are leaving the place. A cablegram received at the navy department announces that the Chinese sailed today from Shanghai for Amoy in accordance with the department's orders. She should arrive Thursday of this week.

A STARTLING RUMOR.

Report of Allies' Defeat Circulated at St. Petersburg.

Paris, Aug. 28.—A m.-a. special dispatch to Le Siecle from St. Petersburg says: "It is persistently rumored in St. Petersburg that the Russian government has received a dispatch asserting that after a fierce battle inside Peking, the allies retreated, losing 1500 men, mostly Russians. It is further said that the Chinese occupy the fortified positions, from which they are bombarding the allies in a murderous manner."

FUGITIVE COURT.

Empress' Gang Reported Near the Capital of Shansi.

London, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says the Chinese officials there have informed the foreign consuls that the emperor, dowager empress and Prince Tuan have arrived in the neighborhood of Talyuanfu. Talyuanfu is the capital of the province of Shansi, adjoining the province of Chihli, and is 240 miles southeast of Peking.

NOT BOXERS.

Paris, Aug. 28.—Official dispatches from Shanghai explain that the Han Kow uprising was not due to the Boxers, but was a plot organized by the partisans of Kang Yu Wei, the reformer, combined with the secret society, Ko Lao Hui, an anti-foreign organization, who proposed to the southern viceroys a revolt against the foreigners.

GOES TO MANILLA.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The First United States Cavalry, which arrived at Kobe, Japan, en route to China, has been diverted to Manila.

BIG FIGHT RUMORED

The Boers Are Reported Defeated With Great Loss at Machadodorp.

BOTHA FIGHTS HARD

British Suffer Severely But Overwhelm the Boers By Superior Numbers.

Lorenzo Marquez, Aug. 28.—Heavy fighting is reported to have taken place at Machadodorp. The Boers are said to have been defeated with great loss leaving their guns and ammunition in the hands of the British.

London, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Pretoria says: It is stated that fighting with Botha's commandos was resumed this morning. The Boers' lines were broken and the enemy is falling back. The British casualties are reported to be considerable.

New York, Aug. 28.—Lord Roberts' dispatches announce that many people here take to be the beginning of the final stage in the South African campaign, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. The commander-in-chief held a council of war with his lieutenants, Buller, French and Pole-Carew, on Saturday, and on Sunday began a general attack on Gen. Botha's entrenched position, on which not much impression had been made.

In the preliminary operations of the previous few days, the Boers had chosen a line of defense of great natural strength, stronger, in fact, than any they have held since they fell back from the Tugela. Their forces were disposed along a formidable chain of hills, extending over a front of nearly 30 miles. Their flanks resting on steeply broken ground protected by morasses. The British advance began on the west to the north of Belfast, from which place the Boers fell back toward the Lydenburg road.

Lord Roberts reports that the Boers are making a most determined resistance in a locality well adapted for defensive tactics and had ground for the cavalry movement. Some experts think this is Roberts' last stand. If he is defeated here he will be completely crushed.

Lord Roberts' superiority in numbers is so great that he may probably work around the Boers and drive them from their position by menacing their line of retreat. To judge from previous experience, it is unlikely that the Boers could stay long enough to permit the maneuver to be accomplished. Meanwhile, the Boers are themselves busy in endeavoring to raid Lord Roberts' line of communications, both in the Orange River Colony and in Natal.

FORCING THEIR WAY.

The British Reach Bergendal After Some Fierce Fighting.

London, Aug. 28.—Lord Roberts reports, under date of Belfast, Aug. 27, as follows: "Our movements are slow on account of the extent and nature of the country. Today, we made a satisfactory advance and met with much success near Bergendal. I met Buller at Bergendal shortly after it was reached by our troops. I am glad to find the occupation costs less than was feared, on account of the approach having been across an open plain for 2000 or 3000 yards and the determined stand of the enemy. The skirmishings, and Second Rifle brigade formed the attacking party. The latter suffered most. I hope the casualties do not exceed fifty or sixty. One officer was killed and two were wounded. A pom-pom (quick firing gun) was captured. "French advanced on the left to Swartzkopjes, on the Lydenburg road, and prepared the way for the movement of Pole-Carew's division. "Raden-Powell reports that he occupied Nilsrum without opposition."

BOERS' LOSSES.

London, Aug. 28.—During Gen. Buller's recent attack, according to the Daily Mail's correspondent at Lourenzo Marquez, the Boers lost heavily. Half of the gunners of the commando were killed, as well as its commander, Commandant Von Dailwif, a cousin of Herr Krupp. A council of war of the Boers at Machadodorp, says the correspondent, has decided against the advice of Commandant Gen. Botha to return to the original plan of relying on Lydenburg.

ESCORT FOR BARONESS.

Chaffee Offers Assistance to Minister Von Ketteler's Widow.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The state department yesterday received the following: "Taku, (no date). Adjutant General, Washington: Have offered assistance to Baroness Von Ketteler, the widow of the murdered German minister to China, is an American, being the daughter of President Lydard of the Michigan Central railway, whose home is at Detroit, Mich. "CHAFFEE." Baroness Von Ketteler, the widow of the murdered German minister to China, is an American, being the daughter of President Lydard of the Michigan Central railway, whose home is at Detroit, Mich.

JAPS MOUNT GUNS.

They Post Artillery Handy to Shoot Into Amoy.

Hong Kong, Aug. 28.—Gen. Goto, from the island of Formosa (Japanese territory), commands the Japanese force occupying Amoy. Large bodies of troops have been landed, and Nordenfeldt guns have been mounted commanding the city. Many Chinese are leaving. The British are reported to have been here today under sealed orders. It is thought probable she is going to Amoy. Canon to land a small force to protect the island of Japanese subjects at that port.

which, considering the greater familiarity that most people have with conditions in the island of Luzon than elsewhere, may seem surprising, but is most significant: "Panay, Cebu, Negros and Leyte are very thickly populated and well-cultivated. In these islands the natives are conceded to be the best educated and furthest advanced in civilization."

In an address delivered in January, 1899, Hon. John Barrett, ex-minister of the United States to Siam, used the following language: "He (Aguinaldo) has organized an army out of nothing, which he has now greatly developed into a force of 300,000 men armed with modern rifles. He captured all the Spanish marecaptured all the Spanish garrisons on the islands of Luzon outside of Manila, so that when the Americans were ready to proceed against the city they were not delayed and troubled with a country campaign. Moreover, he has organized a government which has practically no support in the islands. The great island since the American occupation of Manila, which was certainly the center of the Philippine administration, he has formed a popular cabinet composed of congress members of which he is the president. He has been generally approved by the people, and is viewed favorably with Japanese statesmen. He has a number of able men of acknowledged ability as his advisers, lawyers; while his supporters include the majority of the people, and the natives; all of which prove possibilities of self-government that we must consider.

At the same time, the Philippine representative party, headed by Captain of the United States navy, who, with Paymaster General, and a number of other officers, arrived in Manila on the 10th of October and November, 1898, represented the United States. I call attention to the following facts: I have just remembered that at that date the United States had not yet received the islands with regard to the Philippines. The terms of the Treaty with Spain were that the islands were to be divided at Paris, and the fate of the islands hung in the balance. In the meantime the United States had been fighting for their own hands, had declared their independence from all foreign jurisdiction and had taken possession of the islands, and with Aguinaldo at its head.

“Although this government has never been recognized, and in all probability will go out of existence without recognition.

[illegible]

It is impossible to determine the exact time at which the authorities at Manila had knowledge of the possible possession of the Philippine islands. It is clear that Admiral Dewey for a considerable time had knowledge of such an intention. Gen. Anderson, who took command of the land forces at Manila in the first of July, 1898, says in an article in the North American Review for February, 1900: "I was the first to learn of the intention of the United States to take possession of the Philippines. There was any disposition on the part of the American people to hold the Philippines if they were captured. I was the first to hear of the proposition that of he came to Manila with such knowledge the most obvious considerations would be the interests of the Philippines be speedily acquired with it. Yet they were permitted to indulge all the realization of their plans of independence with which their proclamations had made us familiar. He then exhorted his government to seize the islands and subjugate their people when the consent of Spain was refused. General Aguinaldo could thus address Aguinaldo in his letter of July 4th, 1898: "General, I have the honor to inform you that the United States of America, whose land forces I have the honor to command, and this military being at the disposal of your kind and friendly sentiments and most friendly sympathies and the people of the Philippines, have decided to send me to you to have the most amicable relations with you, and to have you and your people in the most amicable relations with the United States of America, and to have relations against the Spanish forces."

Under the circumstances, what poor excuse could be made for the action of our commanding general have except that which the confiding and trusting people of Manila had upon it. They were fighting for independence. They had proclaimed their object in the ears of all the world. They knew that they knew it. Their leader had been invited to Manila for purposes of general co-operation by the commodore of our fleet. They had been helped to arm and equip their forces. We had counseled with them. They had assisted us. We were posing before mankind as the liberators of Cuba.

Would any human being have suspected us of the double-dealing and treachery involved in having the profits of conquest against our allies, such as we are, and under such circumstances?

Our general, who himself tells us that he went to the Philippines bearing to the natives the knowledge that the administration might decide to hold the islands for the United States, and to their commander, addresses him as "general," refers to "our people," and "our relations," and whom he wishes "to comfort," and "to cheer," and "to encourage," and assures his correspondent that this government has "entire sympathy" with the people of the Philippines, and "the most friendly sentiments" towards them.

Gen. Anderson in this same article confesses, he found it "embarrassing" to have to tell the people of the Philippines, Aguinaldo on the 1st of July, the latter asked him the direct question, "What is the policy of the United States government by the United States. The reply of Gen. Anderson may have been unpalatable, but he relates that upon a subsequent occasion Aguinaldo asked

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS' COULDS

Knights of Pythias' and Pythian Sisterhoods' Supreme Lodges in Session.

SPEECHES ARE MADE

By the Chancellors and Reports of Officers Are Submitted.

Duluth, Aug. 28.—(Special Herald.)—The annual convention of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisterhoods, which opened today at the Hotel Hamilton, was a most successful one. Several large attendance of Pythians and branch officers were in progress simultaneously within the big structure. Chief of these were the opening meetings of the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias and of the Pythian order, which met in the afternoon. The initial meeting of the order of Pythian Sisters was postponed until tomorrow.

Members of the two women's branches joined in the corridors of the temple with a rather reserved amiability and sympathy with the men. It was noted that the question of a union of the two orders might possibly be raised during the present session. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two.

The condition of the order throughout the supreme lodge, with the few exceptions, is flourishing. The growth of the Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two.

Supreme Chancellor Thomas G. Sample, of Allegheny, Pa., head of the Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two.

The Knights of Pythias are the best of the order. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two. The Pythian order, which met in the afternoon, was the largest of the two.

THE DAKOTAS.

Fire at Arvilla—Ruling on North Dakota Homesteaders' Voting Rights.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Arvilla.—One of the Minneapolis and Northern Elevator company's elevators was entirely destroyed by fire. It had a capacity of 100,000 bushels and was valued at $20,000. About 20,000 bushels of wheat were also consumed. Several dwellings were threatened by the flames, and the fact that the wind was favorable to the fire saved the town from destruction.

Fargo.—Prior to last November a lot of Eastern farmers came into the state and selected claims. They made their initial entries in the preliminary work on the new homesteads. When winter came they returned East and resided with their families for several months, returning with their wives and children to North Dakota this spring and completed their residence.

Attorney General Cowan holds that those who were in the state and selected claims prior to Nov. 6, 1899, and have lived here this summer, are entitled to vote at the general elections this fall. As their act in selecting homesteads must be construed as evidence of their intention to become bona fide residents, and their absence in the East during the winter months should not rob them of the right of franchise. The country most affected by this ruling is the state of North Dakota, and the ruling will probably add 1000 or more ballots.

Grandin.—Sheriff Wilson, raided the blind piggers and caught John Cann and William McConnors. Canton.—Stoffer Gabrielson was charged with the murder of a woman. He was charged with the murder of a woman. He was charged with the murder of a woman.

Henry C. Payne Says Democrats
May Carry Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 28.—In an interview
given out here, Republican National Committee member Henry C. Payne makes some startling admissions of the forces surrounding the party of Democracy, success this fall.
The Wisconsin member of the national committee is greatly disturbed over the unpopular position of the party of Democracy in Wisconsin, and fears a wholesale defection of the party of Democracy from the state. He says: "The party of Democracy has not asked for any campaign literature of a single speaker."

PARADE OF VETERANS

Review of the Veterans of the Grand Army in Chicago.

MANY WERE IN LINE

Weather Is Fine and Enormous Crowds Hail Them With Plaudits.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Along the streets
filled with a cheering multitude, past towering buildings gay with the glow of the stars and stripes, throngs of honor, beneath suspended banners,
the veterans of the grand army of the republic, now part of the muster beyond that dark river whose brink their feet
had so often pressed on fields of death, 30,000 of the life guard of the nation—
the Grand Army of the Republic, marched today. It was their greatest parade since that day in 1865, when with ranks
frank from the city of the future, they had marched down Pennsylvania avenue
in Washington with their faces turned home and their hearts filled with the promise of the victories of peace.

It was probably the last of the great parades upon which the members of the Grand Army will march on earth. The average age of the veterans is close upon the average span of human life. Their ranks are thinning fast, and their membership has commenced to fall away.
The muster roll, must, hereafter, according to the officials of the organization, decrease more rapidly than at any period from the end of the war to now.

The last year of the century, across
the years of which they have embodied so glorious a record, was a most fitting time for what so many of them
have declared will be their last review, and still more appropriate was it that
the day should be chosen for the occasion. A light breeze came off Lake Michigan, and the sun shone brightly, banners out to the full length of their
rods, and the veterans, in the ranks,
old soldier to grasp the staff to keep the fold touched the ground. How many ever, how many hands were necessary
on the staff. They were ready always.
The veterans of the grand army of the republic, they had carried it forty years ago,
and save in salute not a banner was lowered.

Not in many years, has Chicago extended as affectionate a welcome to the stranger within her gates, as that day gave today to the heroes of the Grand Army. As the veterans watched the march of the old soldiers, there flashed across them the thought that filled the heart of the nation's hero, when, centuries ago, he wrote of the heroes of King David. "These be the mighty men."

Notwithstanding the age of the members of the Grand Army, the veterans
more members of the organization had announced their intention of joining in the parade. The veterans of the grand army of the republic, old soldiers from every state in the union were in the march with their comrades. They were years, and throughout the length of the parade, the veterans of the grand army had representation. The parade, which started at the intersection of Randolph and Michigan streets, was about five hours in passing a given point. The march was short, and from the beginning to the end, the veterans were in review. After Commander-in-Chief Shaw, the veterans of the grand army
city squares. Even though the majority of marchers were of advanced years,
the parade was a most impressive break or disorder. The column came, on twelve abreast, well closed, solid and compact. The formation was almost invariably kept, for the men who had gone through years of desperate war without being guilty of anything
were too old to be lagging now.

The marching column was headed by a detachment of the city police under the command of Lieut. Flynn, which, in battalion formation, swept the street from curb to curb. Behind them followed a band of seven pieces, and Chief Marsh J. H. Wood, with his immaculate uniform, and a detachment of the city police. A regiment of assistant marshals, led by Col. J. H. Stuart and Col. E. E. Young,
a regiment of assistant marshals, led by

led the great band of the Second Infantry of the N. G., came Commander-in-Chief Shaw, the veterans of the grand

Cheer after cheer went up as Gen.
Daniel E. Sickles, accompanied by his suits, rode past the reviewing stand.
All along the line of march the general
had been given a most flattering greeting, but the warmth of the reception
that met him as he approached the stand was nothing to the enthusiasm that received his salute caused him to flush with pleasure and to bow his acknowledgments again and again.
Twelve heralds in costume, each bearing a long trumpet, came down the avenue announcing in mellow tones the approach of the various organizations, which followed close behind them. Fifty members of Columbia post, of Chicago,
wearing handsome uniforms of dark green, formed a hollow square, in the center of which were borne fifty battle
flags carried by New York regiments during the war. The spectacle of the worn and tattered flags was greeted times with cheers and at times with a deep silence more expressive than anplause could ever be. Whether the crowd cheered or kept silence, it showed deep feeling, and from end to end of the parade all hats were off as the flags went by.

A long line of carriages followed the battle flags, each containing ladies who are officials of the various organizations which are affiliated with the Grand Army. Among the carriages were those of Mrs. J. H. Stuart, president of the J. H. Stuart, president of the Women's Relief corps; Mrs. Julia P. Shade, president of the Ladies' Aid society; Mrs.
of the Republic; Mrs. Admiral Johnson, president of the Army Nurses' association; and Mrs. Elizabeth K. Lawrence, president of the Daughters of Veterans.
Close behind the carriages came three sections of the members of Columbia
post, acting as a rear guard, while a score of veterans, as a special escort,
marched beside the vehicles.
Bridwell Wilkeson post of Buffalo, which has the largest number of men in ranks of any organization that came from outside Chicago and Cook county,
made a fine appearance as they came marching past the stand, headed by the Buffalo military band, of fifty pieces.
The old Continental Drum and Bugle corps, of New York City led Chapin post, also from New York, and both were heartily cheered for their excellent appearance and marching. Then came the Arion Military band, of Milwaukee, forming the vanguard for the various departments, which marched under the leadership of their department commanders.
Wisconsin was given the right of the line, and as her column came turning around the corner of Jackson boulevard into the broad sweep of Michigan avenue, wind with hands playing and colors flying, the Army of the Republic came marching down, the people seemed to realize that here, at last, came the true pageant of patriotism. The old word fluttering flags that had gone before were nothing to themselves, but as representatives of the power that gave them the glory that they were pride in the march, and through them,
under colors fresher and brighter than their own fame must ever grow with the advancing years, came the ranks of the men before them had made the past
a glory that may mellow, but never grow
old, but with hearts as high as
these things in a breath, as rank after rank the old soldiers wheeled into the avenue, what it is and what it will be.
No matter what might come in the future,
the men before them had made the past
a glory that may mellow, but never grow
old, but with hearts as high as
these things in a breath, as rank after

avenue, what it is and what it will be.

MOVE BY THE JAPS

Their Forces Believed to Be En Route to Occupy Pootungfu.

POSITION OF RUSSIA

Will Announce That Relief of Pekin Ends Allies' Military Work.

Berlin, Aug. 28.—According to a dispatch received here from Tien Tsin, Japanese forces are understood to be now on their way to Pootungfu, capital of the province of Chihli, with the direct object of occupying the latter place.

The German vice admiral at Taku reports the arrival at Pekin, Aug. 22, of a German convoy with provisions.

The railroad from Tien Tsin to Yangtun is working, but from the latter place to Pekin the road is in bad shape.

London, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg contains the assertion that Russia, almost immediately, will notify the powers she considers the relief of Pekin by the nations as the final accomplishment of the military task of the allied forces. There is no indication, however, in the afternoon papers here to confirm this.

The afternoon papers doubt that the rumors of peace negotiations are well founded and applaud Gen. Chaffee's prudence in preparing for a winter campaign, as they regard the activity of the Japs, simply dumping a bomb on a responsible Chinaman with whom to treat, unless Li Hung Chang is able to place himself in communication with the fugitive court and secure credentials satisfactory to all the powers, as indicated by the dispatch of the problem will be more prolonged and more difficult than previously hoped.

AMERICANS FROM PEKIN.

A Party of Fifty Arrives at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, Aug. 28, via Taku, Aug. 27.—(Copyright, 1900, the Associated Press.)—Fifty Americans, including the Misses Condit-Smith, Woodward and Paine, have arrived here from Pekin, which they left five days ago by boat.

The commissary department is preparing to establish an extensive winter base at Tien Tsin.

Leut. Waldron, of the Ninth United States Infantry, received a serious sniping wound while patrolling in the Hoshin, (Hoo-Si-Woo).

The Chinese and Japanese are constantly pushing through troops to Pekin.

Inquiry at the state department at Washington as to the personality of the persons named in the dispatches among the refugees show that besides Miss Condit-Smith, who is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Conner, there is a Miss Payne, a resident of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. and Miss of Chicago, mother and daughter.

CHAFFEE PREPARING.

Is Making Arrangements to Winter Fifteen Thousand Men.

Tien Tsin, Aug. 27, via Taku, Aug. 26.—(Copyright, 1900, the Associated Press.)—Officers who have arrived here from Pekin report that Gen. Chaffee (commanding the American forces) is making all the necessary preparations to maintain 15,000 men through the winter.

Fifteen of the American wounded, including the late Gen. Chaffee, during the siege of the legation, have arrived here by boat from Pekin. Capt. Myers, the corps is suffering from typhoid fever and cannot be moved.

A large batch of refugees are due here tomorrow.

The American signal service corps, co-operating with that of the British, has completed the telegraph line from Pekin to Taku.

CABINET MEETING

Special Session Is Called to Consider the Situation in China.

LONG DELAY CAUSED

Refusal of Germany to Accept Li's Credentials Blocks Peace Negotiations.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The calling of a special cabinet meeting for this morning to consider the latest developments in the Chinese situation, following a midnight conference last night and several similar conferences with Secretary Root and Acting Secretary Adee within the last few days, emphasized the amount of delay the president is devoting to this troublesome situation. It is understood the government is better advised than it was yesterday as to certain elements of the Pekin dilemma.

Baron Von Sternberg, the German charge, saw Acting Secretary Adee this morning and it is understood his purpose was to talk over the question of Li Hung Chang's credentials. One effect of Germany's refusal to accept Li as plenipotentiary will be to delay peace negotiations at least until the arrival of the German ambassador in China, several weeks hence. This fact is not contemplated with equanimity by our government, the president being desirous of terminating the present unsatisfactory state of affairs in China as soon as this can be done with honor and security.

It is understood that the president has various notes can be attached, he will conclude that the United States has performed its duty from a military point of view. Therefore, if our government can secure an agreement with the powers, as indicated by the dispatch of the problem will be more prolonged and more difficult than previously hoped.

The diplomatic matter of the military situation is regarded of supreme importance. Again Mr. Root, the Chinese minister, was at an early hour at the state department. He was much disturbed in the report that the Chinese minister, Earl Li's liberty of communicating with the Chinese government was being denied.

The minister was strongly of the opinion that any renewed attempt to interfere with Li Hung Chang, either in person or by the Chinese minister, would prove most disastrous in its effect upon the peace negotiations.

It is stated that the war department is making all the necessary preparations to maintain 15,000 men through the winter.

Washington, Aug. 28.—A special meeting of the cabinet was held at the White House this morning. At 1:20 p. m., after a session for over three hours, the cabinet adjourned.

The meeting was attended by the president, the cabinet members, Secretaries Gage, Root, Hitchcock and Wilson, and Postmaster General Smith. In addition, Acting Secretary Adee was present. It is very unusual for an assistant secretary to attend a cabinet meeting.

THE TRIAL OF BRESCI

Humbert's Assassin Quickly Convicted and Sent to Prison For Life.

HE WAS VERY COOL

Appeared Unconcerned and Described the Killing in a Firm Voice.

Milan, Aug. 28.—The trial of Bresci, the anarchist, who on July 29 shot and killed King Humbert of Italy at Monza while his majesty was returning from a gymnastic exhibition, opened here today. An immense crowd of people gathered about the court from early morning, where only a few places were reserved for the ticket-holding public. The hearing began at 9 o'clock. Bresci sat in the dock, calm and almost indifferent. His counsel, Signor Martelli, head of the Milan bar, and the anarchist writer, Signor Morlino, made requests on various grounds for an adjournment, which were refused.

It is said Bresci wrote to the judge declaring he would not reply to the interrogatory.

Bresci spoke in a low, firm voice. He said he fired three shots. Two wooden targets were placed on the table before the judges. Two hours' suspension then ensued. A brigadier of gendarmes, Salvatore, recapitulated the story of the assassination of the king. He said he saved Bresci from the crowd, who nearly lynched the assassin. Bresci, when rescued, was covered with blood.

Gen. Avogadro Des Contes Di Quinto, the king's aide de camp, who was with his majesty when the latter was killed, recounted how the king was shot, saying the king tried to reply to a question of the witness after the crime. His majesty started.

"I truly think," the king stopped in the middle of the sentence, said "yes," and then expired.

The testimony of Witnesses Gallimbert and Olivieri did not adduce new facts. The royal court, Luigi, deposed that he saw Bresci shoot the king.

The king's death was a tragedy. The witness named Ramella, who lodged with Bresci at a friend's house prior to the crime, said the prisoner was always perfectly calm.

The close of the trial, was pronounced guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

THE GOLF TOURNEY.

Match Play Begins in the Women's Open Championship.

Southampton, L. I., Aug. 28.—The first day match play in the women's open golf championship was begun this morning upon the links of the Shinnecock Hills Golf club under the most favorable circumstances. The sun was warm and bright, while there was a refreshing breeze from the ocean.

The first pair to get started was Miss Hallett, Curtis, of Boston, and Miss Eunice Terry, Ardley. After halving the first hole in 6, Miss Terry won the second and Miss Curtis the third. The fourth was halved, and then Miss Terry won the next three holes in rapid succession. Miss Curtis hanging on the rim of the cup for a half at the seventh hole.

The match between Mrs. Pendleton Rogers, Plainfield, N. J., and Miss Ruth Underhill, Nassau Country club, was very close and interesting for the first seven holes. Mrs. Rogers was leading by one stroke when they drove off for the eighth hole.

The third couple to get under way were Miss Genevieve Hecker, West Hill Golf club, of Norton, Conn., and Miss E. Wickham, Shinnecock. Miss Hecker won the first hole in 4, and Miss Wickham the second and third. The fourth was halved, and then Miss Wickham led by four up.

Miss E. A. Adams, of Philadelphia, and Miss Grace Keyes, Concord, Mass., were all even at the seventh hole, the first, second and fourth holes being halved. Miss Keyes won the third and seventh, Miss Adams the fifth and sixth.

Miss Ruth Underhill, Nassau Country club, was beaten by Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, Hillsdale Tennis and Golf club. The summary for the first round for the championship was as follows: Miss Genevieve Hecker, West Hill, beat Miss E. Wickham, Shinnecock, 4 up and 2 to play; Miss Harriet Curtis, Essex country, 2 up and 1 to play; Mrs. N. P. Rogers, Plainfield, beat Miss E. Wickham, Shinnecock, 4 up and 2 to play; Miss Frances Griscom, Marion Cricket club, Philadelphia, beat Mrs. E. Manie, Pittsfield, 3 up and 2 to play; Miss Beatrice Hoyt, Shinnecock, 6 up and 1 to play; Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, Huntington Valley country club, beat Miss C. H. Furbush, Shinnecock, 7 up and 1 to play; Miss C. H. Furbush, Shinnecock, 7 up and 1 to play; Miss M. Curtis, Essex country, beat Mrs. E. Manie, Pittsfield, 3 up and 2 to play; Miss G. Keyes, Concord, beat Mrs. H. Toulmin, Philadelphia, 1 up and 1 to play.

NEW YORK PRIMARIES

Tammany Wins Out In All Districts of Greater New York.

PUTS SHEEHAN OUT FIGHT

He Gets But One Ward In Erie County Assembly Districts.

New York, Aug. 28.—Full returns from yesterday's primaries in Greater New York show that the New York county Republican organization was successful in all except the Twenty-first assembly district, where Abraham Gruber, who opposes the county commission, was successful. Tammany Hall was successful in holding control of the Democratic organization in all districts. John C. Sheehan failed to recapture the leadership of the Ninth district from Frank Goodwin, who had the support of Richard Croker.

In the Seventh district James W. Boyle was defeated by Richard Keaser. This contest was carried on inside the organization, but it was generally understood Mr. Croker, favored Boyle.

In Brooklyn (King's county) the regular organizations won, except in the Sixteenth assembly district, where the present Republican leader, Assistant Postmaster William J. Taylor, was beaten by Naval Officer Robert Sharkey. Michael J. Dady retained the leadership of the First district.

On the Democratic side Hugh McLaughlin won in all districts and will have a solid delegation of 42 in the state convention. The candidacy of Bird S. Coler for governor did not figure in the Brooklyn primaries.

Buffalo, Aug. 28.—The returns from yesterday's Democratic primaries in Erie county show that William P. Mackey, for governor, and the organization headed by Norman E. Mack, national committeeman, have carried every assembly district in the county. The opposition, led by William P. Sheehan, carried but one ward, the Twenty-first. The Republican primaries were held yesterday, but there was no contest in that party.

FIRE BUGS.

They Burn a Winnipeg Business Block and Lynching Is Threatened.

St. Paul, Aug. 28.—A Winnipeg, Man., special to the Dispatch says: As a result of incendiarism, the block on Portage avenue, from Gerry to Smith street, was almost destroyed by fire last night. The following business premises were damaged or completely demolished by the flames: Singer Sewing Machine company, William Heschler, commission merchant; Henry Eric's, millinery and fancy goods; R. Henderson, boots and shoes; Mackenzie & Co., plumbers; McLean's bike store, and a large veneer brick block in which were the business premises of J. McLeod, holiday fancy goods, and M. Conway, auctioneer. The losses will amount to $50,000. The new Y. M. C. A. building, standing on the rim of the flames, and had a narrow escape. Mrs. Conway and family, sleeping in one of the burning buildings, narrowly escaped.

Firebugs have been starting a lot of fires, and there is talk of forming a vigilance committee and stringing up the offenders if caught.

LINER'S CLOSE SHAVE.

Unknown Atlantic Passenger Steamer or Narrowly Escapes Disaster.

St. Johns, N. F., Aug. 28.—Dr. Grenfell, superintendent of the deep sea mission of Labrador (fishermen), who arrived here yesterday and reported a four-masted trans-Atlantic passenger steamer had narrowly escaped becoming a total wreck in the fog within a few miles of the point where the British steamer Scotsman was wrecked, Sept. 25 last, does not give the date the steamer was endangered but it is considered to be about Aug. 16, near Flower Cove and in a dense fog. Grenfell was coasting through the straits in a mission launch and was rounding a hidden ledge of rock lying half a mile off shore, when a liner was sighted racing along at, he says, about 20 miles an hour, and heading direct for the shoal. She was between him and the land and the doctor expected every moment to see her wrecked. But Dr. Grenfell blew the launch's whistle and alarmed her, causing her to change her course, just escaping disaster. It was too foggy to note the steamer's name or the line she belonged to.

PLAGUE AT GLASGOW.

Two More Deaths and Shipping May Be Quarantined.

Glasgow, Aug. 28.—Two girls and a boy, members of isolated families, have fallen victims of the bubonic plague, though the medical authorities assert that the cases are less virulent than in the cases which have already proven fatal.

In the event of a further spread of the disease Glasgow shipping will probably be quarantined.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
—OF THE—

ABSTRACT CO."

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, whose names are hereunto subscribed, have agreed and granted unto the said

struction and general laws of the state of Minnesota, and more particularly under the act of Chapter 10, the General Statutes of said state of the year 1878, being sections 2794 to 2804 inclusive of the General Statutes of said state for the year 1894, and under the laws amendatory thereof, and supplementary thereto, under the same and for the purposes hereinafter set forth, and to that end do hereby adopt the following articles of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be and hereby declared to be "The Consolidated and abstracts of title to, and all other matters concerning lands and property in the county of St. Louis and in the state of Minnesota, or in any other county or counties of said state to which said majority may hereafter, by vote of a majority of the stockholders, determine to extend the conduct of said business, and to keep and maintain all books, records, maps, plats and other documents, and to cause the conduct of said business to acquire by purchase or otherwise, all such maps, plats, maps, plats and good will of any corporation in the county of St. Louis, or in any other county to which it may, as aforesaid, determine to extend its business, and to maintain such office or offices and all such other documents, and to cause the same to be necessary or convenient to the conduct of its business, and to cause the same to be necessary or incidental to the proper conduct of its business.

The principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be the principal place of business of the county of St. Louis, and of the state of Minnesota.

ARTICLE II.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the first day of January, 1900, and the period of its continuance shall be fifty years.

ARTICLE III.

The amount of the stock of this corporation shall be sixty-five thousand shares ($60,000), and the same has all been paid for by the stockholders, and is held for by the board of directors. No shares shall be sold at a price less than par value thereof, either in cash or in property deemed of full equivalent.

the highest amount of indebtedness to which this corporation shall at any time be subject, is the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

ARTICLE V.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this company for the purpose of incorporation are as follows:

A. H. ALWORTH, residing at Duluth, Minnesota.

EDWARD C. HOWE, residing at Duluth, Minnesota.

L. L. WASHBURN, residing at Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE VI.

conduct and management of its affairs and the officers to be elected by the board of directors. The officers shall be the president, a secretary and a treasurer. The members of each board of directors shall vote to act as such until the first annual meeting of the association, and thereafter at their annual meeting on the first day of each year, and the said board of directors shall elect their election, on the first ten days thereafter, one or more of its members to be president, one or more to be secretary and one or more to be treasurer. The president, the secretary and treasurer shall be the officers of the association, but the secretary and treasurer shall not be members of either board of directors.

Any officer or member may be held by the association to be responsible for any damages caused by his negligence or carelessness. It is further empowered to call such board together for any emergency meeting and to call a special meeting each year, upon such reasonable notice as may be determined. The majority of such board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of organization and for the purpose of the association.

At the first annual meeting of said corporation, the following persons shall be elected as directors: John A. McLaughlin, in the county of St. Louis and state of Minnesota; John A. McLaughlin, in the county of St. Louis and state of Minnesota; and John A. McLaughlin, in the county of St. Louis and state of Minnesota. In January, 1901, and until such time as the board of directors shall be qualified, the following persons shall

W. Washburn, and until such annual meeting, the officers and directors herein shall elect officers as above provided, the general officers of this corporation shall be: F. W. Helmick, president; J. L. Washburn, vice president; F. W. Helmick, secretary; and F. W. Helmick, treasurer. The officers and directors of this corporation, except those designated to act as such in the first annual meeting thereof, shall be elected at the starting the term of one year, or until their successors are elected in their stead, and in case any vacancy at the time occurs in any of the offices so said to be elected, the directors of this corporation, or directors thereof, the same shall be filled by the board of directors until the annual meeting of the stockholders. The board of directors shall adopt such resolutions as may be necessary and consistent with these articles or the laws of the State of Minnesota, as it may deem necessary and proper for the government of the affairs of this corporation, and be conducted by its officers.

ARTICLE VII.
The capital stock of this corporation shall be divided into six hundred and fifty shares of one hundred dollars each.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this fifteenth day of August, 1900.

THE WEATHER.

United States Agricultural Department.
Weather Bureau, Duluth. Synopsis of weather conditions for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 a. m. (Central time),
Aug. 29.—The barometer is high over the lake region and low over the western Dakotas and Nevada. Warmer weather prevails in the Red River valley and Lower Mississippi valley, and it is cooler in Upper Rocky Mountain district. Topical showers fell during Tuesday or last night
over Eastern Tennessee, Southern Louisiana, Northwestern Texas, Oklahoma, Washington and Idaho. Light showers in the lake region continue generally fair, with winds mostly light northeasterly.

Local forecast for twenty-four hours
from 7 p. m. (Central time) today: Duluth, West Superior and Soudan. Showers and cool weather this afternoon, tonight and Thursday, with fresh and possibly brisk northerly winds.

H. W. RICHARDSON,
Local Forecast Official.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Forecast until 5 p. m.
tomorrow: Wisconsin—Fair tonight and probably Thursday; warmer weather likely tonight. Minnesota—Partly cloudy with showers this afternoon and north westerly breeze. Thursday, fair, with showers tonight. North and South Dakota—Fair tonight. Upper lakes
—Variable winds, mostly easterly, becoming fresh on Western Superior, fair tonight and probably Thursday.

When the war with Spain started, there was such a scarcity of officers trained at the Annapolis naval academy
that it became necessary to supply
the vacancies from the number of those who had resigned from the navy, and to appoint volunteers who, in many instances, lacked much of the technical requirements. Since that time the number of vessels has been increased, and the want of trained officers is more seriously felt than ever before. This is because the navy has grown beyond the capacity of the naval academy to supply it with officers.
Consequently, the naval academy must to the future train a large number of cadets
if its graduates are to equal to the demand for officers. Naval cadets are allowed scholarships for a year during the four years of study. This seems a sufficient sum for a boy student's maintenance, but it is not enough for a naval cadet whose costly uniforms and other necessary expenses exhaust a great part of the allowance. Hence the navy is not open to the poor youth of the country. No matter how capable a boy
may be, or what intelligence he possesses,
it is next to impossible for him to become a naval officer if he cannot command sufficient means. In addition to the government allowance, to take out his existence during the four years' course, he must have sufficient to pay for his education. The allowance to these cadets, but this seems unreasonable. The wiser course would be to make the uniforms less costly and the allowance more so that each boy will be able to live within the allowance.

The Chinese exclusion law was enacted
by congress in response to a demand
from the Pacific coast. Through the annexation of the Hawaii Islands the law has been made mandatory. On July 7, 1898, the United States declared the Hawaiian Islands a territory of the United States. Now, mark the effect, as outlined by the Denver Post. There are 25,000 Chinese in these islands. They are the citizens of the United States, but under the constitution all persons born on American territory are such, and therefore all Chinese born in the Hawaiian Islands since
the date of annexation are ipso facto American citizens, and when of age will participate in all the privileges and immunities of the United States. They cannot be excluded either from the United States or from the Hawaiian Islands. They may select their future place of habitation. No state could prevent them from doing so, and therefore the elective franchise inasmuch as the federal constitution, article xv, provides: "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color or previous conditions of servitude." This makes it plain that these Chinese citizens of the United States cannot be denied the right to vote or be discriminated against in any manner touching their citizenship. And what of the Chinese born in the Philippines since they became American territory?

REPUBLIC OR EMPIRE?
In this speech the Attorney, Mr.
Towns, read a number of extracts from newspapers closely connected with the administration and from articles written by men high in the councils of the Republican party, to show the determination of the party to introduce a new form of government in this country—in short,
the abandonment of the republic and the institution of imperialism. One of the extracts was from the Army and Navy Journal, the official organ of United States army and naval officers and edited by men who are in close touch with the inner circles of the imperialists at Washington and who reflect their views and ideas. Here is what the Army and Navy Journal said in its issue of Aug. 3:
"The English executive, as an important executive. The British parliament is an English legislature. TO THE SAME SYSTEM WE ARE COMING BY THE DECREE OF CIRCUMSTANCES AS INEVITABLE AS THAT OF FATE. IF THIS BE IMPERIALISM MAKE THE MOST OF IT. So far as citizenship is concerned the British empire is one, but beyond the limits of the United Kingdom the citizens live under a rule essentially monarchical. The system is strictly by the constitutional limitations of the parliamentary system."

The Army and Navy Journal is more honest than other imperialists. It does not seek to conceal the character of the change in our government that is being made by the McKinley administration,
and which would be made more rapidly should the people
by their votes in November
give to it their approval. It is an alarming fact also that these ideas are being ing with the approval of Republican organs in some parts of the country,

some of which have even begun to advocate a new form of government. A short time ago the Des Moines Globe, an ardent supporter of President McKinley and the official organ of the Republican party in Polk county, Iowa, had an editorial from which the following extract is taken:
"Now is a good time for America to do away with her old, obsolete constitution and adopt a form of government that will be logical with our new expansion ideas and will give ample protection to capital. We should not be disgraced in the sight of civilized nations,
by the violence and killing that accompany the operation of street cars in St.
Louis now. A CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY IS PROBABLY THE MOST DESIRABLE PLAN THAT WE COULD NOW ADOPT. EVERYTHING IS RIFE FOR THE CHANGE. We have a large army and it can be increased under almost any pretext without causing alarm to the masses. This country has been so prosperous that the voters have lost that spirit of patriotism and homestly that is necessary to the successful operation of republics. The strong, iron hand of discipline will have to be used to bring the masses to a full sense of proper behavior."

What do the American people think of these statements? Do they not emphasize the danger of the imperialistic policy of McKinley being permitted to continue?
The Army and Navy Journal, a McKinley organ, says we are drifting to an "imperial executive." The Des Moines Globe, a McKinley organ, says we are drifting to a king. When such statements are made by the Republican press,
when we also find Republican newspapers and orators sneering at the Declaration of Independence and treating the constitution with contempt, how can it be truthfully said that imperialism is an imaginary danger? A republic is not suited to imperial methods.
Colonialism cannot exist under republican institutions. When the Athenians set up a colonial empire held together
by force their democracy fell into disrepute. When they denied the liberties of their colonies they lost their own. The fate of the Athenians must inevitably be the fate of the American republic if the McKinley policy of imperialism be endorsed and perpetuated.

This then is the paramount issue of the present campaign—the republic or the empire? On which side will you take your place in the battle?

BALDWIN MEN WIN.
The Democratic caucus in the city of Duluth last evening resulted in a victory for those who desire to see Charles C. Baldwin nominated for congress. The friends of Henry Truelsen claim that the result is about a stand-off, but there does not appear to be any question about the claim of a majority of twelve or more for Baldwin being sustained when the convention meets tomorrow.

All the returns from the other precincts in the county have not been received, but enough reports favorable to Baldwin have come to hand to show that he will have a good majority of the delegates. This means that a solid Baldwin delegation will be sent to the congressional convention at Atlanta. In view of the disposition of the other counties to combine on the candidate chosen by St. Louis county Democrats, there is little doubt that Mr. Baldwin will be the fusion nominee for congress.

STRANDED AMERICANS.
An estimate has been made by Manager Murray of the American Exchange
in London that 2000 Americans, "not counting tramps," are stranded in that city. It is stated that some of these unfortunate are victims of a desire to see the world in advance of the accumulation of adequate means, while others
drifted to the big city in the hope that the opportunities it held out to poor men were in proportion to its size and wealth.
The great mass of these great cities,
telling how some poor but bright American boy has made money and fame in London. Some of these stories are probably true, but more of them are not.
Those which are not serve a purpose.
It is the people who are attracted by such stories that keep the great cities growing. For one who effects a lodgment in London a hundred leave gains made in other localities in the city of their hopes.

As the San Francisco Bulletin says,
the tourist who starts on an European trip with just enough money to cover visible expenses always comes to grief.
The invisible expenses are the cause of his downfall. The man who thinks he can evade these invisible expenses soon discovers his own error, but when a man
takes a vacation on an ocean steamer
it is easier to go on than to turn back.
The lot of the innumerable American tourist is made harder by the grand way
in which his richer countrymen spend their money. The poor tourist's agony while dissipating the accumulations of several years in a European trip cannot be described. Still, there are thousands of men and millions of women who are planning for participation in this agony,
and the number of stranded Americans
in London will be increased.

The critic for August states that the author of that most delicious book, "Elizabeth and Her German Garden," is none
other than Prince Henry to Pleas, daughter of Cornwallis West and sister of the young man whom Lady Randolph Churchill captivated and captured. On the other hand, from the March of Wales story that Elizabeth is Countess von Armin, wife of the son of that von Armin whom Dismarek hated. She, too, is an English woman, and her husband, too,
is English, whatever it may be, will be interesting when it is revealed by the publishers, Elizabeth, the April, May and June babies and the March of Wales are delightful legends of the world of imagination. Nor is their charm lessened by the knowledge that they are realities of the world of flesh and blood.

Gen. MacArthur does not say anything about the war being over in the Philippines. In this respect he differs from his predecessor. The similarity of the two commanders appears in the fact that the present one continues to assimilate Philphinos with his rifles at the rate of 100 to 200 per week.

Aprons of the flower show, it is stated
by the agricultural department that the total value of flowers sold annually in this country is $2,500,000, of which $800,000
goes for roses, $400,000 for carnations, $750,000 for violets, $600,000 for chrysanthemums, and the rest for flowers of various names.

The statement that the Republican poll
just completed shows that Indiana is likely to go Democratic by 18,000 majority should not be accepted as a fact. Mr.
Hanna may be trying to work a scare in order to get more "beans."

Mark Hanna may be a fairly good speaker, but the American people does not like his style of politics and the less talking he does the better for the Republican party.

Burchard gave us "Run, Romanism
and rebellion," and Roosevelt has given us
"disorder, dishonesty and disaster."

A negro preacher in Texas predicts another flood equal to that recorded in the Bible, and has built an ark for the ocea-nians intending to eat the part of a modern Noah.

New York now ranks as the second
city in the world in point of population.
London is larger, but it had a good many years' start of the American metropolis.

The Republican leaders appear to be worried about the attitude of Governor Phineas of Michigan. They are fearful that he has decided to support Bryan.

The city of Washington has found that cleaning streets by hand is effective and cheap, and that municipal work is much to be preferred to contract work.

The New Tribune's attempts to prove that Mr. Towne is guilty of insincerity are amusing. Mr. Towne needs no defense from such an assertion.

The Delaware Republicans are running
two tickets and have thus removed all doubt as to the state going into the Bryan column.

It is certainly an incongruous state of affairs that a Prohibition ticket has been
from such an accusation.

Of course England wants the lion's share in China.

The Rounder

There is a man in the East End of London whose story is told that borders on the farce comedy order. It seems he has a theory about the training of animals
and children which is something about
giving them reason to avoid any action
that he desires them to cease. The theory is probably based on the saying that the burned child dreads the fire. Not long ago he had a dog and a man and
on a dog that was unfortunate enough to be a member of his household. The dog
had a habit of running into the house
and jumping on a lounge where it
curled up and made itself comfortable.
This the family did not like, so the head of the household met him. He procured a large trap and laid it on the lounge. Of course he did not wish any intellect at all would thing of deliberately
getting into a trap, so he took an old
coat and spread it over the trap, and lay
in wait for the dog.

A little later he was passing through that same room, followed by the dog,
when his wife entered from the opposite side of the room. The dog, seeing her,
"John," she said, "I have just received a letter from mother, and she is coming to make up a nice and comfortable
place for you. The devil, said John, in amazement, and finding lack he sat down on the trap.
There was a click and a man and then a fiendish yell, and John sprang lightly into the air and landed in the trap. He whoops that would make a Sioux chief
go out of the whomp business in disgust.
The steel jaws of the trap had closed
up on him, and the teeth were digging deeper into his flesh every minute. The coat that he had spread over the trap was still there, and the sleeves were flying about as John did his dance. The dog was probably just thinking that it was a game that his master was playing, so he joined in, jumping for the flying coat sleeves and kicking his hind legs. His enjoyment irritated John, so he licked the dog in the neck, and at this unexpected rebuff the dog retired, howling.

About this time John discovered that the more he struggled the more chance he gave the trap. He tried to get out of the flesh, so he subsided and leaned up against the wall, swearing horribly. All at once he heard a rattling sound, and came in, attracted by the unearthly noise, and an attempt was made to remove the trap. It was too late, however, tighter than a brother, and the man they tried to get it away the deeper the teeth sank into his flesh.
Nobody seemed to understand just how to get the thing off, and the woman soon found that it did not help matters to pull at it, for it hurt so that John swore until he was black in the face. He could not get out of the trap, and the crowd
had just begun to think that the trap
was a permanent fixture in the house neighbor came in to see who was being killed. He sized up the situation, laughed cruelly, and then forced the jaws of the trap apart and John fell out of it.

THE SAFE CRACKED.

Large Sum Taken From St. Joseph,
Mich., Postoffice.

St. Joseph, Mich., Aug. 28.—Safe-blowers cracked the safe in the postoffice last night. The extent of the loss is not known, but is believed to be anywhere from $500 to $5000. No arrests have been made.

BRYAN'S ARRANGEMENTS.

Plans For His Chicago Trip For Labor Day.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28.—J. W. Bryan
today decided definitely to leave Lincoln for Chicago next Friday evening. He will probably spend Saturday in Illinois, making speeches, going on to Chicago that evening. After making his Labor day speech in Chicago, he will probably stay
ably make other speeches in that vicinity,
leaving away from home for two or three weeks.

Practical Suggestions About

What to Eat and How to Prepare Food.

This matter will be found to be entirely different from and superior to the usual run of food articles, in that every theory about the training of animals
and children which is something about
giving them reason to avoid any action
that he desires them to cease. The
theory is probably based on the saying
that the burned child dreads the fire. Not long ago he had a dog and a man and
on a dog that was unfortunate enough to
be a member of his household. The dog
had a habit of running into the house
and jumping on a lounge where it
curled up and made itself comfortable.
This the family did not like, so the head of the household met him. He procured a large trap and laid it on the
lounge. Of course he did not wish any
intellect at all would thing of deliberately
getting into a trap, so he took an old
coat and spread it over the trap, and lay
in wait for the dog.

Birdie Claims Damages.

Birdie McAllister charges Robert A. Benson with injuring her reputation, and she has asked the district court for $30,000 in damages. Benson arrested her and had her confined for twenty-seven hours in police headquarters without any legal process. She claims that while thus confined he attempted to destroy her good name, making a criminal complaint against her for receiving stolen goods. She claims that the case was dis-

to the horses that many farmers have delayed this work till later. The apple and plum crops are good.

The report of the North Dakota section is
as follows:

Heavy showers of rain in almost every part of the state during the past week
have still further delayed cutting of grain,
and has so thoroughly wet that which had been cut, that it is sprouting in both the stack and shock, while stacking or threshing was out of the question, except in a few favored localities.

MRS. WRIGHT DEAD.—Mrs. Dr. Charleska, Ill., Aug. 28.—Mrs. Dr. Charleska, Wright, whose attempt to abort her pregnancy resulted in a riot at Gilman, Ill., at the Inghouls county jail here yesterday. The loss of blood and exposure during the ride here caused her death. She makes four deaths resulting from the violence of the Wright riots. John Meyer, who was shot by the rioters, is recovering.

Dress Goods.

Heavy Skirtings—The demand for heavy skirtings has been phenomenal, but has been supplied in a way that has demonstrated the superiority of the Dress Goods stock. We show as many heavy skirtings as all stocks in the city combined. You'll find just what you want—medium weight or heavy—black or colored—plain or fancy—plaid back or otherwise. We merely specify a few items:

Black Pebble Cheviots—47 inches wide—$1.25 the yard.

A heavier grade—52 inches wide, very handsome, $1.50 the yard.

Still heavier—52 inches wide, very close texture, $1.75 the yard.

Heavy Kersey—56 inches wide—blue, gray, brown and castor, $1.25 the yard.

Heavy Venetian—58 inches wide, all wool—nothing to compare with it in the market—brown, gray, blue and khaki, $1.50 the yard.

Golf Backs—In an immense variety of weights, styles and widths, ranging in price from $1.35 to $4.50 the yard.

Ladies' House Wrappers.

Yesterday we received a complete line of Fall Wrappers in all the new designs and styles. We had them made especially and particularly for our trade, as the ordinary Wrappers are only put-ups. Ours are well sewed and made; instead of raw edges, ours are all hemmed, 12 to 15-inch flounce on the skirt, full width and the best fitting Wrapper we have ever had. They will be on sale tomorrow—

Black and white, fast color, fleeced Wrappers, at $1.25.

Fancy stripes in a variety of styles, Wrappers, at $1.25.

Persian effect, all new shades, Wrappers, at $1.45.

Black sateen, fast color, Wrappers, at $2.25.

Outing Flannels.

We are headquarters for the very best Outing Flannels, not only in quality, but also in styles. It is not a question with us how cheap, but how good we can buy them.

"The Oriole Fancy" in dark and light colorings, opening price 8c.

"Swiss Outings," 54 distinct patterns and colorings, a very fine, soft finish Outing, the best shown this year at the price, 10c.

Twilled Outing—68 pieces and every pattern desirable. This is the best quality of Outing made; heavy, but soft and fancy, price 12½c.

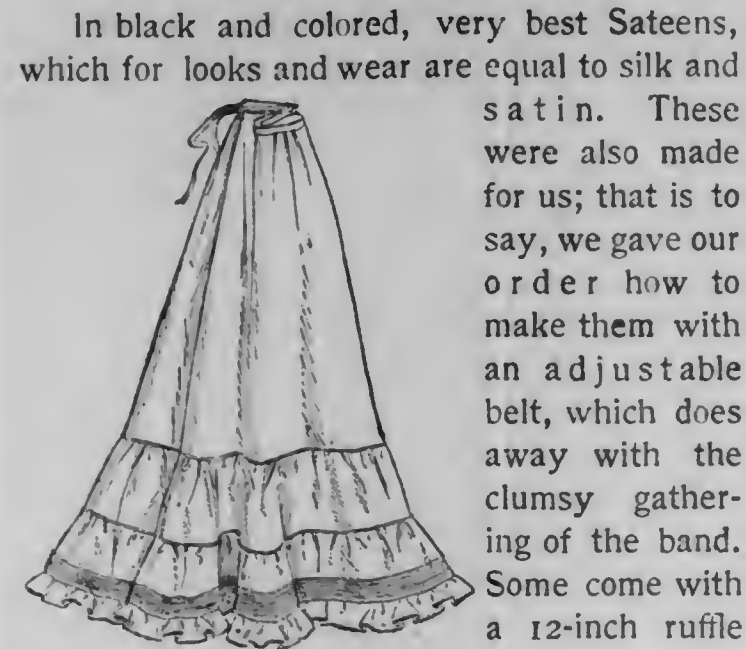

Fleeced Lined Wrapper Goods in an endless variety and the very best quality, the "Vicuna," "Victor" and "Persane," price 10c and 12½c.

New Petticoats.

In black and colored, very best Sateens, which for looks and wear are equal to silk and satin. These were also made for us; that is to say, we gave our order how to make them with an adjustable belt, which does away with the clumsy gathering of the band. Some come with a 12-inch ruffle pleating, others corded. In short, we have no hesitancy in saying that these Skirts are better in every respect than anything found in the ordinary stores.

Tomorrow we place on sale 50 black double warp Sateen Skirts, flounced and corded, at $1.25.

50 colored best Sateen Skirts, with 12-inch fine pleatings, at $1.75.

Our Cloak Dep't is the attraction.

New things arrive daily. The most elaborate and unique styles of Ladies' and Misses' Garments, Ladies' Suits, Silk and Flannel Waists, are to be found here only.

New Walking Skirts in heavy double textures, in black, brown and gray, came in by this morning's express.

Milwaukee Road Makes Arrangement for Running Trains to Duluth.

AN IMPORTANT MOVE

St. Paul & Duluth Road May Be Double-Track in Near Future.

St. Paul, Aug. 29.—President A. J. Eastling, Third Vice President A. C. Bird and Secretary P. M. Myers, representing the Milwaukee Railway company, spent several hours in St. Paul and Minneapolis yesterday in conference with officers of the Northern Pacific railroad, and the result is one of prime importance. Some of the parties to the conference agreed to discuss the matter, excepting in a general sort of way.

It is learned, however, and through a source that is perfectly reliable, that an arrangement was made yesterday whereby the Milwaukee company will hereafter use the St. Paul & Duluth road.

President Eastling and other high officials of the Milwaukee conferred with the Northern Pacific people about a month ago. At that time the Northern Pacific officers appeared to be entirely willing to consider a proposition entailing the use of the Milwaukee road. However, it was not until after yesterday's protracted and very cordial conference that a positive agreement was arrived at.

A prominent railway man, who was present at the conference, but who is not directly familiar with the railroad situation in the Northwest, said:

"I cannot say that the two companies have come to an understanding relative to the joint use of the St. Paul & Duluth. To know that such an arrangement has been contemplated for some time. It has been agreed, as you do know, that each of the companies use the line to Duluth, it is a matter of greater importance than would seem at first thought."

"The relations of the two great companies have always been pleasant. But this traffic arrangement means that the two companies have been brought into much closer relations than ever before. It is a real good thing all around. This arrangement virtually places the Milwaukee road at the head of the parade. It gives to the great territory served by the Milwaukee system, east and west of here, the advantage of any market for the products of that section."

"The St. Paul & Duluth road is in good shape. It is capable of standing a good deal more traffic than it now has. Possibly the road will be double-tracked, but that is a matter for the future."

"We demand that all articles which are required by law to be sold at public auction be sold free-list.

"We demand the reopening of the mines of the United States to the unrestricted sale of gold and silver at the market price, issuing legal tender notes therefor.

"We denounce the placing in the hands of the national banks of the control of the currency of this country, as authorized by the act of March 3, 1863, and we demand its substitution thereof of treasury notes.

"We demand that all paper money issued by the government itself, the volume thereof to be controlled by convertible bonds, be made a legal tender of all debts, and to be a legal tender for all purposes.

"We reaffirm our belief in the Monroe doctrine, and denounce McKinley for his failure to carry it out, and we demand that they-be given their right of self government, in accordance with the principles of justice, to the people of the United States."

"The end of the war has been reached, now burden our people's oppressions, and unnecessary."

"We demand the passage of laws establishing a postal savings bank system, and the prohibition of the sale of liquor, opium and the election of United States senators by popular vote.

"We demand a constitutional amendment for the graduated taxation of income, and the prohibition of the sale of wine, telegraph and other public utilities to corporations.

"We denounce the present administration of the United States for its violation of American principles and whose scandalous misgovernment, have rightfully forfeited."

"We denounce it because of its betrayal of the principles of justice, and because of its notoriously open partisanship toward the people of Porto Rico, for its abuse to the people of Porto Rico, for its

duct of the war with Spain, for the robbery of the people of vast sums of money, for the enormous expenditures of the postal and revenue frauds in Cuba, and for its cowardice and extravagance in the Philippines.

"We denounce McKinley's civil service for its gross mismanagement, and the American people that infamous measure known as the ship subsidy bill.

"We denounce the administration of all patriotic American citizens to support the pirates placed in the field by the imperialists, and we denounce the administration of the people's party in the United States. All of which is respectfully submitted."

LIKE HOME.

The burglar has entered the house as quietly as possible, but his shoes were not padded and they made some noise, says The Times.

He had just reached the door of the bedroom when he heard some one moving in the bed as if about to get up, and he paused.

The sound of a woman's voice floated to his ears.

"If you don't take off your boots when you come into this house," it said, "there's and you are to tramp over my carpets with your muddy boots on. Go downstairs and take them off this minute!"

He went down stairs without a word, but he didn't take off his boots. Instead he went straight out into the night again, and the man who was waiting for him saw a tear glisten in his eye.

"I can't rob that house," he said. "It reminds me of home."

BEYOND HIM.

self to the low-necked dress which society imposes upon women, nor does he understand the ethics of an English dance which affords a friend or stranger an opportunity to place his arm around the waist of a fair lady who happens to be the wife of another says Hindu in Universal Magazine. And he finds neither rhyme nor reason in the rule of society which, while permitting a lady to drink with male friends, denies her the privilege of smoking. Above all, the Indian has a horror of the new woman. Hindu has very properly been described as the "third sex."

NOT TRADERS.

The Cossacks rarely become merchants. Though they maintain 60,000 fighting men, and can muster 128,000 in an emergency, there are but 440 of their own people engaged in business.

DOCTOR'S JOKE.

proved expensive to its giver, was one to which a Parisian doctor invited several patients last November, says an exchange. After dessert the doctor made a little speech, in which he informed his guests that, as he had lately discovered that his own life was not worth a day's purchase, he had gathered round him those of his acquaintances whom he con-

TORNADO AT WAPELLA.

Canadian Town Storm Swept and Three Lives Lost.
St. Paul, Aug. 31.—A Winnipeg, Man., special to the Dispatch says: Wapella was the scene of a disastrous storm of wind, rain and hail on Tuesday night. Dark, low-rimmed clouds gathered west and northwest of town. Suddenly all was still, and calm reigned supreme for a short time. It was a terrible night for the townspeople and settlers. The public school, a stone structure, had one part of the roof completely destroyed, and the stables were demolished on every hand. Considerable damage was done to standing crops, which many farmers will be compelled to plant. But the saddest thing to chronicle is the fate of Angus McDonald and family, who were living on their farm, about two miles from town. When the storm was at its height they decided to seek refuge in the cellar. Before they could get away, the cyclone lifted the house be-away, the cyclone hit the house, inmates and all, and in a few minutes all was desolation. Hope is entertained that the mother will recover, but the father and two children are dead.

Men's Right to Wear Shirt

Waists Clinched By Legal Opinion.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 31.—A woman passenger on a Southern railway train has complained that a man wore a shirt waist without his coat in a ladies' coach. The matter was referred to the legal department of the road. That department has submitted an opinion "that so long as a man is decently dressed, whether he has on his coat or not, his appearance cannot be offensive to any sensible person."

BAR ASSOCIATION.

Adopts Reports, Elects Officers and Closes Its Session.

Saratoga, Aug. 31.—The American Bar Association concluded its twenty-third annual meeting with a brief session today. The report of committees on uniform laws and on law reporting and digest was submitted and adopted. Public acknowledgment was made for the committee on the American bar by the British bar at a banquet given in London early in the summer.

CRENSHAW WAS SILENT.

The Captain's Father Says He Made the Complaint.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Adj. Gen. Corbin has received the following: "Capt. Crenshaw, Ga., Aug. 30.—Gen. H. C. Corbin, Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.: Please say to Surgeon General Sternberg, concerning the reports of illness of my son, Frank R. Crenshaw, that he made no complaint of illness to the newspaper reporters. He reached Atlanta with a sore on his face, with his heart full of joy to meet again his loved ones and these ones dear to him. I am satisfied that it was his own desire to leave the President at San Francisco and come to Atlanta. Information as to ill-treatment came from a passenger on the same transport that brought my son from Manila. I will write you later more fully concerning the matter. I am sure that the statement as to ill-treatment attributed to my son was made by another newspaper reporter. I am sure that a true soldier, bore his sufferings without complaint.

SILBERSTEIN & BONDY CO. | SILBERSTEIN & BONDY CO.

New Walking Skirts.

We are well prepared for tomorrow's rush, for today we received 75 new ones in Black, Brown and Gray, double texture and plaid backs. One number we received is especially good, equal to any $7.50 Skirts that are offered anywhere. We shall make it interesting for tomorrow and offer this $7.50 Skirt at $5.75.

Ladies' House Wrappers.

A complete line of Fall Wrappers in all the new designs and styles. We had them made especially and particularly for our trade, as the ordinary Wrappers are only put-up. Ours are well sewed and made; instead of raw edges, ours are all hemmed, 12 to 15-inch flounce on the skirt, full width and the best fitting Wrapper we have ever had. They will be on sale tomorrow—

Black and white, fast color, fleeced Wrappers, at $1.25.

Fancy stripes in a variety of styles, Wrappers, at $1.25.

Persian effect, all new shades, Wrappers, at $1.48.

Black sateen, fast color, Wrappers, at $2.25.

New Petticoats.

In black and colored, very best Sateens, which for looks and wear are equal to silk and satin. These are made with an adjustable belt, which does away with the clumsy gathering of the band. Some come with a 12-inch ruffle pleating, others corded. In short, we have no hesitancy in saying that these Skirts are better in every respect than anything found in the ordinary stores.

Tomorrow sale 50 black double warp Sateen Skirts, flounced and corded, at $1.25.

50 colored best Sateen Skirts, with 12-inch fine pleatings, at $1.75.

Ladies' Misses' and Children's Garments.

Our cloak room is certainly very interesting, so the ladies tell us; it is no surprise to us for them to tell us so, as they find variety and styles that no other house or combination of houses can show. We shall be pleased to show you the new things whether you purchase or not.

Waists.

New Silk Waists for day or evening wear, in black and colors, all-over tucked and corded, new autumn shaped collars and cuffs, fully guaranteed by us, $5.75.

New Flannel Waists for Ladies—A Flannel Waist in Navy and Red, with small designs, such as Polka Dots, Fleur de Lis, at $1.25.

French Flannel Waists—In plain Red and Blue, nicely trimmed with black, Sutasen braid, well made and stylish, at $2.75.

Waists of the very best French Flannel, collar, cuffs and front handsomely stitched and tailor-made. The colors are Red, Hello, Gray White and Blue. This fine waist is exceptionally desirable and our price is less than buying the flannel and having one made; price $3.25.

New Flannel Waists for Misses—We had much inquiry for Misses' Waists last fall; we had them made this year and here they are. Nice French Flannel Waists in Blue and Cardinal, military effect, with two outside pockets, gilt buttons; just the thing for school girls, serviceable and comfortable; price $2.50.

Dress Goods.

Heavy Skirtings—The demand for heavy Skirtings has been phenomenal. We show as many heavy Skirtings as all stocks in the city combined. You'll find just what you want—medium weight or heavy—black or colored—plain or fancy—plaid back or otherwise. We merely specify a few items:

Black Pebble Cheviots—47 inches wide—$1.25 the yard.

A heavier grade—52 inches wide, very handsome, $1.50 the yard.

Still heavier—52 inches wide, very close texture, $1.75 the yard.

Heavy Kersey—56 inches wide—blue, gray, brown and castor, $1.25 the yard.

Heavy Venetian—58 inches wide, all wool—nothing to compare with it in the market—brown, gray, blue and khaki, $1.50 the yard.

Golf Backs—In an immense variety of weights, styles and widths, ranging in price from $1.35 to $4.50 the yard.

MAYOR'S GAME.

Strong Arm Tactics Said to Be Used By Philadelphia's Mayor.

Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—The water used by this city has been polluted for years. It has come to be known as the undrinkable Schuylkill. Not long ago a bill providing for a city loan of $2,000,000 for the filtration of the water was pending in council. For many reasons many opposition were opposed to its passage. They expressed themselves openly, freely saying they would never vote for the measure. They were called one at a time into the office of Mayor Ashbridge and a conversation about as follows is said to have ensued:

"You sent for me, Mr. Mayor?"

"Yes, about this filtration business. They tell me you are opposed to it."

"Yes, I am. I do not believe in filtration."

"I would like you to vote for it. I believe in filtration. The people voted for the loan and they want it, and I think they ought to have what they want."

"Well, I do not think the people know what they want. I am not in favor of filtration and will not vote for that bill."

"At this the mayor would argue a little, but finding the councilman obstinate, he would ring a bell. Secretary Moore would answer, and the mayor would ask him for a certain lot of papers. After procuring them Moore would retire and the mayor would turn to the councilman."

"Mr. Mayor, lives in your ward?"

"Yes, sir."

"He is in the water bureau; has a salary of $300 a year. He is a man you depend on to deliver to you the vote in the fourth division of your ward, is he not?"

"Amazed, the councilman would admit it. Then the councilman would be asked whether he would vote for the measure."

"No," was the usual response, and the mayor would then turn to his desk and write orders for the discharge of the most valuable of the leader's appointees and to him and assure him that unless he voted for the water bill these men would be removed. This was a new game, and each man had it played on him. When it came for the measure, it was voted on there was not a man in the branch of the council who voted against it.

UP TO LAST ROUND.

The Semi-Finals in the Women's Golf Tourney.

Southampton, L. I., Aug. 31.—The semi-finals of the women's golf championship was played here today under the most favorable weather conditions. There was a much larger crowd following the two matches than has been seen on the links this week. Those to play in the drive off were Miss Terry, Ardsley, and Miss Frances S. Griscom, Merion Cricket club. The second pair, Miss Beatrice Hoyt, Shinnecock, and Miss Margaret Curtis, Essex county, probably the strongest player of the Boston contingent, started soon afterwards. Miss Curtis is an exceptionally long driver and has attracted considerable attention this week with her brilliant style of playing.

Miss Griscom, Philadelphia, beat Miss Beatrice Hoyt, Ardsley, up in 19 holes.

Miss Curtis, Boston, beat Miss Hoyt, the former champion, one up in 24 holes. This leaves Miss Griscom and Miss Curtis to contest for the championship.

LIEUT. WAY KILLED.

A Fourth Infantry Officer Meets Death in Luzon.

LA FORTUNE-MODERNITY.

Two Young People United in Marriage at Episcopal Rectory.

The marriage of Miss Anna La Fortune and Robert M. Dornier, was celebrated at the St. Paul's Episcopal rectory last evening. In a very pretty ceremony, performed in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride and a few invited guests.

Miss Anna La Fortune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fortune, of Duluth, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert M. Dornier, of Duluth, at the Episcopal rectory last evening.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Dornier, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Dornier, of Duluth, and the Rev. Mr. Dornier, of Duluth.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle, and the groom wore a suit of dark cloth.

The wedding party consisted of the bride, groom, bridesmaids, and best man.

The reception was held at the home of the bride, and the wedding feast was served at 8 o'clock.

NEW DEAL IS MADE

St. Louis County Agricultural Society Reorganized With New Blood.

FAIR ARRANGEMENTS

New Managers Will Take Up Work With Enthusiasm

—The Officers.

At a meeting held in Old Fellows' hall last evening, the St. Louis County Agricultural Society elected the following officers: J. D. Wade, president; J. C. Perry, vice president; J. B. Scoville, treasurer, and George K. Nesbitt, secretary. On the executive committee for the ensuing year will be: Simon Clark, John Hanson, J. G. Harris, H. B. Patterson, S. W. Hill and William Craig.

Arrangements for the coming annual exhibition of the society were made at length and with enthusiasm. Among the committees appointed was the following, which will have exclusive charge of all agricultural exhibits: J. H. Martin, T. W. Hill and P. A. Mitchell. The superintendents of different departments are: Dr. John McKay, races; Dr. J. G. Harris, horses and live stock; Dr. N. B. McNulty, games and athletics; C. E. Dresser, vegetables.

A committee appointed to solicit funds consists of M. S. Burrows, John Pantan, and J. B. Middlekauff. Another meeting will be held next Tuesday evening.

Weather in September.

According to the data in the office of the weather bureau, the month of September has had during the past twenty-nine years a mean temperature of 56 degrees. The warmest month was in 1887, when the average was 63 degrees, and the coldest in 1888, when the average was 53 degrees. The highest temperature recorded on any day was 94 degrees on the 1st in 1894, and the lowest 51 degrees on the 29th in 1899. The average precipitation was 3.86 inches. The greatest in any one month was 11.52 inches and the least .22 inch in 1892. The average number of cloudy days has been 9, partly cloudy 12, and clear 8. Prevailing winds have been from the west and the highest velocity recorded 78 miles from the northeast on the 16th in 1881.

AMUSEMENTS.

"QUO VADIS." The stage production of Henryk Sienkiewicz's great novel, "Quo Vadis," which is to be offered by the St. Paul and Duluth theatres, under the management of P. C. Whitney and Edward Knowles, has perhaps attracted more widespread attention than any production in the history of the stage. The dramatic treatment of the story is of great interest because of the widespread popularity of the novel. The production is a masterpiece of stagecraft, and the cast is of the highest quality. The production is a masterpiece of stagecraft, and the cast is of the highest quality.

"THE HINDOO HOOBOO." Tomorrow evening, the play entitled "The Hindoo Hoofoo," will be produced at the St. Paul and Duluth theatres. The play is a comedy, and is a very laughable and original. The cast is of the highest quality, and the production is a masterpiece of stagecraft.
